MEMORANDA

III

JOURNAL

FIRST DAY

Tuesday, June 16, 1931.

Opening.—The Pacific Northwest Annual Conference met for its third session in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Yakima, Washington, Tuesday, June 16, 1931, at 7.30 P. M., Bishop Edgar Blake presiding.

The holy communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of the church.

Organization.—R. C. Hartley was re-elected secretary, and he named as his assistants B. N. Galbraith, T. W. Bundy, Harry L. Allen, and J. Homer Magee.

Earl McAbee, Conference Treasurer, named as his assistants: Willard Stanton, John Seethoff, W. E. Callahan, Dwight G. Bennett, Ray Partee, Arthur S. Morton, Wm. C. Bowman, H. E. Bashor, G. H. Nelson, Paul R. Campbell, Robert H. Allen, E. D. Hart, Philip S. Clapp, Ralph Brown, James Moore, and W. W. Mills.

Roy Jenkins, Conference Statistician, named the following as his assistants: Loyd Burk, B. A. Hylton, Dow DeLong, Chester Blair, C. A. Pickering, R. L. LaMott, T. L. Blaisdell, H. E. Nelson, J. M. Hixson, O. W. Black, Fred Isacksen, I. J. MacFarland, and E. M. Filbert. These assistants were duly confirmed.

Bar of the Conference.—The Bar of the Conference was fixed to include two rows of seats back of the cross aisle.

Program.—The printed program was made the official program of the Conference.

Postmaster.—R. A. Gailey was elected Conference Postmaster.

Conference Reporter.—John Hoffman was made Conference Reporter.

The Cabinet was authorized to fill vacancies occurring in the Committees and Boards.

Transportation Committee.—C. E. Miller was placed on the Transportation Committee in place of O. F. Krieger.

Greetings to Bishop Leonard.—On motion of F. A. LaViolette, the Secretary was instructed to send the greetings of the Conference to Bishop Adna Wright Leonard.

Committee on Courtesies.—A committee of three on Platform Courtesies was authorized to be appointed by the Cabinet.

R. C. Hartley Resolution.—John M. Canse presented the following resolution, and it was adopted by a rising vote:

> "Twenty-one years ago Robert C. Hartley was elected Secretary of the Puget Sound Annual Conference, at Centralia, September 14, 1910. His genial spirit and his constant attention to the intricate demands of this responsible office have won for him the sustained appreciation of his brethren. Strong confidence was shown by his being retained by the Joint Commission and the united vote of the members of the new Conference—the Pacific Northwest. We hereby desire to record our high regard for his capable and painstaking services to the church through these many years of secretarial leadership. It is moved that we show this confidence by a rising vote."

REPORTS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the church makes significant contributions to the Pacific Northwest Conference through the College of Puget Sound, through the work of Andrew Warner, through its encouragement of the Wesley Foundation work, and by scores of loans to young people attending school. We take this means of expressing our appreciation for these splendid services within the Conference.

The Conference Board of Education is increasingly unifying and coordinating all educational activities within the boundaries of the Conference. We are happy at the results already achieved, and anticipate increased efficiency and values as a consequence.

We recommend that an evening be set apart at next year's Annual Conference session for the emphasis of religious-education activities of the Conference.

College of Puget Sound.—The College of Puget Sound graduated a class of 101 this year. It has had a total enrollment during the last twelve months of 1,262 different persons. This number is composed of 654 in our college day classes, together with the registration in our night classes, the conservatory of music, and the summer school of 1930.

The institution has again lived within its income, although we added materially to the faculty last year. The budget is balanced for next year. Congratulations should be extended to the administration and officers for this accomplishment.

The last General Conference ordered a survey by experts of all the institutions of higher learning of the church. The College of Puget Sound has been surveyed this year. In the report of the Survey Staff we find these pronouncements:

"The financial policies which have been pursued in the past have been conservative and, on the whole, in accordance with sound principles."

"The College has a challenging opportunity to provide an important center of religious and moral influence in the entire community as well as in the lives of its own students."

"The Survey Staff has found few institutions whose prospects are as favorable as those at the College of Puget Sound. It is the judgment of the Survey Staff that the College of Puget Sound merits in every way the confidence of its supporting constituency."

"Among the Methodist institutions thus far surveyed not more than three or four are equally fortunate in their location."

"Members of the Survey Staff have never before visited a science building in a college of liberal arts which has been as carefully planned and as completely equipped as the one at the College of Puget Sound."

"In general, it must be concluded that the administration and faculty of the College of Puget Sound have shown a commendable degree of activity in their recent efforts at curriculum improvement."

"The College of Puget Sound should be especially commended upon the excellent administration of the library."

"The major needs of the College at present are for endowment rather than for additions to the plant."

"The needs of the College can finally be reduced to one factor—the need for a larger supporting income."

The challenge of $250,000, made by the General Education Board of New York City, was made for the purpose of increasing endowment, which in turn would increase the supporting income. The college must collect approximately $175,000 more before September 30, 1931, in order to secure payment of that board's unpaid balance of $135,000. We commend the college for its determination not to put on a general intensive campaign at this time. The college representatives should have the enthusiastic assistance of the pastors and laymen in making contacts with persons of wealth.

The college secured an average of $8,400 per year from Conference educational collections during the five years next preceding the taking over of that collection by the Board of Education of the church. This year the college received $3,500 on current expenses from the Board of Education. This is a reduction of $1,000 from last year. It is the sense of this Conference that the College of Puget Sound, being still in the formative stage and in a sparsely settled section of the country, should receive as favorable consideration as possible and equal to that of other schools in the newer parts of the country.

Each pastor should see to it that the college is brought before his people every year, either by himself or by representatives of the college. The Conference hereby pledges its hearty support to the trustees and administrators of the college, assuring them of the cooperation of the churches of the Conference.

The Division of Church Schools.—Out of a population of 1,300,000 in the States of Washington and Idaho, our church has the responsibility of religious leadership in a constituency of 325,000 people of Washington and northern Idaho. Among these people we minister in 328 local units. Our working force includes 260 ministers and approximately 7,000 teachers and officers and other church leaders.

During the period of emphasis upon the use of the educational method the church has made great gains. Membership has grown from 34,544 to 49,838, an increase of 42 per cent. This represents a gain of 22 per cent over the actual increase in population. Furthermore, there has been a phenomenal development of the faith and devotion of our people, as indicated by a 75-per-cent increase in contributions to religious and benevolent enterprises. Undoubtedly the use of the educational method has contributed substantially to these achievements.

Our Summer Institutes for Young People have developed until we have eight of them, attended by over 1,000 young people. In these they are getting a training in Christian living as well as a vital religious experience, all of which makes for great value.

We hereby express our appreciation of the splendid work done by Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, who served as director of Religious Education in western Washington for seven years and in eastern Washington and northern Idaho for three years. His clear insight into the many problems confronting us in the use of these newer methods, his fine devotion to the welfare of our churches through the development of the religious educational program in our Conference, made his informed, enthusiastic, energetic leadership helpful beyond measure. We bespeak for him in the pastorate the same great success that he has had in this work.

We cannot adequately express appreciation of the wonderful help of the Board of Education, as it has given money and leadership to this work. Special mention should be made of the splendid work of Doctors Boss and Forsythe, who for three years have conducted seminars for pastors. We appreciate the appointment of Dr. Andrew Warner as Director of Religious Education, and request the Bishop to continue him in this work.

We recommend the continued use of the seminar, and trust that its usefulness may be extended to additional groups of our ministers, and that those who have already availed themselves of its benefits may have the opportunity for continued study. We recommend that the director organize seminars for groups of ministers in the various sections of the Conference, which groups shall meet once a month and continue in these monthly meetings for six or eight months for study and direction in introducing the educational method into our churches.

We recommend that special attention be given to adult education, including leadership training, by organizing standard training schools, Christian-life emphasis weeks, church night programs, week-day conference, and discussion groups.

The College of Puget Sound is doing a very worth-while thing in offering to the students there the opportunity to study religion in the same thorough way that other subjects are studied, and in giving them the training in religious education that will make them efficient workers in the local church. We also commend the splendid thing being done in Idaho, whereby a thoroughly trained educator shall give his whole time to the teaching of religion among the students of the University of Idaho and the Lewiston State Normal School; also that being done in the Wesley Foundations in Seattle and Pullman.

We congratulate the churches upon having available such splendid materials for religious education as found in the new closely graded course of study, the departmentally graded course, the elective courses for young people and adults, and the organized units of study for groups of young people and adults. We recommend the use of the New Graded Course of Study in all our schools. In small schools the Departmentally Graded lesson will be found exceedingly valuable. The Book Concern is announcing a series of uniform lessons for those schools in which there is a demand for such.

The vacation school and the week-day church school to supplement the training of the Sunday school should be used more extensively.

The funds for the support of this work are derived from three sources:

1. An appropriation made by the Board of Education.
2. The Rally Day offering.
3. World Service gifts designated for this agency by interested individuals.

We recommend that a special effort in this direction be made by encouraging all our Sunday schools to reach the ten cents per member indicated as the goal in their Rally Day offering last year, and that Rally Day be made Religious Education Day in all our churches, at which time our pastors shall be asked to present the cause of religious education in our Conference and give all the people a chance to make designated gifts to this agency.

Wesley Foundation.—The Board of Education notes with interest and concern facts and figures pointed out by Bishop Blake at this session of the Conference, and wishes to indicate the responsibility they, and other data included herein, lay upon our pastors and people to reinforce the efforts of our college pastors and Wesley Foundation directors.

Within the bounds of the Pacific Northwest Conference there are approximately 2,500 students from Methodist homes in State schools where religious instruction is prohibited by law. These sons and daughters of Methodist extraction have asked for bread. The Methodist Episcopal Church has supplied their wants and needs through Christian homes, Epworth Leagues, and church schools up through the high-school period. As they cross the campuses of our State institutions of higher learning we must realize that they enter upon an artificial life, released from home restraints. Almost immediately old opinions clash with the new scientific approaches and their minds are bewildered. At the same time the most momentous choices of life face the student. These choices may be stated under four questions, namely:

1. Whom will the student serve—God or materialism, others or self?
2. With whom will he serve? Who shall be his life companion?
3. How will he serve? What profession will he choose?
4. When will he serve—from the beginning of life or after he has made his "pile"?

Surely the Methodist Episcopal Church will offer her own sons and daughters bread—not stones—during this most crucial period of life. Bishop F. J. McConnell has declared: "The outstanding task of the Methodist educational effort in the years ahead, so far as we can see, will be to put the religious accent into the great educational enterprise carried forward at State universities."

In the light of these facts and their implications, we commend the Wesley Foundations for the work that is being done in behalf of the young men and women of to-day who will be Methodist leaders of to-morrow.

The board approves the establishment of schools of religion at Washington State College and the University of Washington, which have been organized to offer courses under interdenominational auspices, and in which our Wesley Foundation directors will be instructors. We note that six courses are to be offered at the University of Washington and four at the State College of Washington, and that the latter institution will give academic credit for the work. We commend the establishment of a chair of religion at the University of Idaho and Lewiston State Normal, made possible at both institutions by interdenominational support.

The board commends the University of Washington administration for the establishment of a Survey Commission to evaluate the curricula and various agencies of the university campus and community to determine the trend of influence upon the moral and religious life of the students. Following this precedent, we recommend that an effort be made to establish such commissions at all of our college centers.

Pursuant to the order of the last Quadrennial Conference, a survey is being made of the State institutions and Wesley Foundations functioning on such campuses. This survey, when it comes from the hands of the Survey Committee and the General Conference, will be the first and most comprehensive report of educational and religious conditions which obtain in our higher institutions of learning. Dr. Warren F. Sheldon, General Secretary of the Joint Commission on Wesley Foundations, in the face of great odds, is to be commended for his pioneer work and unfailing efforts in this project.

We earnestly recommend the observance of "Go-to-College Sunday" in all of our churches, September 6, and urge each pastor to prepare the minds of the students by a sermon on the relationship of religion to college life, and by a service of consecration for the outgoing students. Also this board requests each pastor to communicate with the director of each Wesley Foundation and pastor of each college church, immediately following this session of the Conference, giving the names of prospective students, indicating their church relationship, talents, and special interests.

We recommend the establishment of a Conference Wesley Foundation Commission, which shall formulate a "Unified Wesley Foundation Conference Program." We also recommend that H. O. Perry, as chairman; Andrew Warner, the executive secretary; J. Ralph Magee; Paul H. Ashby, the directors and pastors of the several Wesley Foundations, and one layman, selected by the several Foundations, constitute the commission.

Kimball School of Theology.—When the school closed in June, 1930, it was $8,000 in debt. Since then, by various means, the sum has been reduced to less than $3,000, all owing to former professors. This is being met as rapidly as possible. The trustees appreciate the action of the Board of Education in continuing their monthly contribution for three months after the school closed, and also to a considerable number of friends of theological education who have shown their interest by monetary gifts. It will require another year to pay off the debts, but thereafter it may be possible for the trustees to give heed to the recommendation of the Oregon Conference of 1930 that the revenues from invested funds shall be used as scholarships for worthy Northwestern young men who desire to secure theological education elsewhere.

It will also be recalled that the Annual Conference of 1930 appointed a commission of three to meet with other commissions similarly appointed by the California, Southern California, and the Oregon Annual Conferences. These groups held a meeting at Sacramento, California, on April 23. The whole matter was freely discussed, and the general sentiment of the united group was that while there is no immediate need for Methodist theological education on the Pacific Coast, that ultimately there will be such a need, and that suitable steps should be taken looking forward to that eventuality. To this end committees were appointed to confer with the president of the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, California, and with the president of Drew University, at Madison, New Jersey. Bishop Titus Lowe was elected chairman of the united group, and Dr. H. H. Frost, of San Francisco, secretary.

The trustees desire to record their gratitude to Bishop Lowe for his efforts—successful in part—to secure a continuation of appropriations from the Board of Education, and for his valuable suggestions in setting up the Sacramento meeting.

We recommend the election of J. Ralph Magee, Seattle, Washington, as a trustee, term to expire in 1932, and Robert Brumblay, Spokane, as a trustee, term to expire in 1933.

Northwest Training School.—The beautiful new property located at 4550 Sixteenth Avenue, N. E., in the university district, which was secured a year ago, and is now valued at $60,000, in which the school has been conducted during the year, has proven very satisfactory and advantageous.

During the year the school has had an enrollment of thirty-two young women, eleven of whom were graduated at commencement time. Five of this number are entering Christian work, and the remaining members of the class are planning further training.

By the recommendation of the local board, the length of the school year has been extended to nine months.

The field workers have been most graciously received by the pastors and churches, whose interest and financial support have been greatly appreciated.

AUDITING

The Auditing Committee desires to report that they have examined and approved the following accounts:

The Conference Board of Church Schools; the Conference Treasurer's account of Roy L. Sprague; the account of Conference Claimants, Incorporated; the Home Mission accounts of A. A. Callender, Columbia River District; Robert Brumblay, Spokane District; H. O. Perry, of the Tacoma District; Francis Ahnlund, of the Swedish District; P. H. Ashby, of the Walla Walla District; J. Ralph Magee, of the Seattle District.

The committee has audited the accounts of the individual pastors as they relate to ministerial support, and have reported the same, in compliance with our rules of order.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Spokane Deaconess Hospital.—We have met with some encouragement in bringing the daily cost this season under that of last. The average cost for March and April last year was $5.22 per day, while for the same two months this year the average is $3.99, or $1.23 per patient day, without cheapening the service. Our accountants show for the first five months of 1931 we have a margin of $7,230.33 improvement over the same five months of last year. No red has appeared on our current account since January 1. This margin, after deducting interest on bonds, seems rather encouraging for a season like this, considering we are still paying out on our nurses' homes and carrying a monthly annuity on the farms.

Our accounts receivable, one year ago the 30th of April, were $102,000. This year, the same date, they amount to $124,000, or $22,000 more due the hospital than at this time last year.

Our free work and uncollectable accounts for the first four months of last year were $11,373. This year for the same period they are $15,573, or $4,200 more, which indicates that we are caring for many more poor people this year than last.

Anticipating this emergency early in September of last year, we called the personnel of the hospital together and, after discussing the unemployment situation in the city and the great need for increased charity work, we voluntarily cut our salaries. This, with other revisions since, has brought our monthly pay roll from $7,200 to $4,800, or a saving of $2,400 per month on our salary budget. By the lessening cost of quantity materials and very shrewd, careful buying, always for cash, we have kept our expenses $22,413.47 for the first five months of this year under the cost of the same five months last year, or practically $4,500 per month, which means, if we can duplicate our record for the next seven months as we have the past five, 1931 will show about $50,000 less expense in the operation of the Deaconess Hospital, Spokane, under last year. We are determined to keep our expenses inside of our income, even if other severe cuts become necessary.

ROBERT WARNER, Superintendent.

Walla Walla General Hospital.—Dr. Robert Warner, superintendent of the Spokane Deaconess Hospital, having been called to Walla Walla for consultation regarding the General Hospital, reported fully on that institution, and U. F. Hawk, Ray S. Dum, and Cyrus A. Wright were appointed to consult with Doctor Warner concerning this enterprise.

The hospital is a modern institution, approximately valued at $250,000. The present Board of Trustees propose to turn this hospital over to the Methodist Church without any obligation other than the assumption of certain liabilities.

After thorough investigation and discussion, it was resolved that Doctor Warner be instructed to make a thorough survey of all facts pertaining to this institution, and should this survey prove to be favorable, then the whole matter be presented to the next session of the Pacific Northwest Conference for consideration.

It was further advised that Doctor Warner take such action as may be necessary in order to conserve this generous gift for the Methodist Episcopal Church, provided that no action be taken which would in any wise legally obligate the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference.

Wenatchee Deaconess Hospital.—In making this, our sixth annual report for the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital, located in Wenatchee, Washington, we are pleased to state that the hospital is doing all the business its capacity permits, and really at times more than should be done, to insure as pleasant service to our guests as we would like.

The auditor's report does not show as much net earnings as last year, because of the heavy charge-off of accounts of former years.

The net income for 1930 shows $10,198.24, as against $14,192.59 for 1929; or, reporting as per patient per day service, we find the following:

	1930	1929
Services	$4 82	$4 73
Less free work and bad debts	54	20
	$4 28	$3 53
Expenses	3 71	3 69
Net income	$0 57	$0 84

I had hoped that at this time as last year I would be able to report running expenses and usual bond and interest payments in full from income from patients, but because of that word "depression," real or unreal, we find that we must either solicit funds for a part of the October bond payment or extend the loan for a year.

A supplementary report for the first four months of 1931 shows the receipts nearly $500 per month more than expenses, which is about even with the same months of last year.

We are conserving in every department where possible without curtailing the excellent service we profess to give.

Our training school graudated six excellent nurses. This year more applications for the next class are coming than we can use.

During the year Miss Margaret Cook, a deaconess who was our bookkeeper, chose to become the wife of a splendid young man, Mr. Henry Moore. Miss Edna Newberry, a deaconess to be consecrated at this session of our Annual Conference, takes her place.

Miss Winnifred Smith, a deaconess in the institution nearly from its beginning, passed to her reward. Her splendid Christian life will speak out from the lives of the many girls in training whom she taught the Holy Scriptures for these many years. Miss Bertha Reich, a deaconess who has charge of the chart work, will take her place in the Bible classes.

J. O. HAWK, Superintendent.

Seattle General Hospital.—In April of this year a campaign for subscriptions for the Seattle General Hospital was put on. Doctor English and his group of workers labored hard, but the total result of the canvass was a subscription of $138,100.50. About half of this was conditional on the full amount ($500,000) being raised.

The expense of these various movements was $37,152.21; $23,519.61 in subscriptions and cash has been provided toward this expense account, leaving a balance of $13,632.60 to be provided for. The Board is still hopeful, but have no definite plans for further action in the immediate future.

Doctor Reynods resigned as superintendent November 1 last, and Dr. Walter C. Lippincott was appointed in his stead without pay. Doctor Lippincott has been a member of our medical staff for more than twenty-five years, and has a large professional practice. Since taking the position as superintendent Doctor Lippincott lost his wife by a tragic death, and he himself is just now recovering from a severe operation. With all this he is giving much time and thought to the interests of the hospital. A truly sacrificial life.

Miss Anna Woods is doing an excellent service as supervisor of nurses. Under her supervision the hospital maintains a reputation of giving a superior service to our patients. Many are the words of praise given Miss Woods and her coworkers for the high type of nursing service maintained in the hospital.

The School of Nurse Training has been under the direct charge of Miss Glee Martin. She is doing excellent work, and the product of the school ranks with the highest of the standardized schools of the country. There were seventy-four students in the three classes during the last year, eighteen of whom were graduated May 12. We have need to be proud of the Seattle General Training School.

The hospital gave service to 3,486 patients during the year. There were 424 births and 152 deaths. Our earnings from patients was $227,272.79. Receipts from patients were $212,649.97, or 93.6 per cent of the earnings. The total receipts were $220,067.06.

After charging off the following depreciations: buildings, $2,171.60; furniture and fixtures, $3,867.50, and accounts receivable, $9,090.72, a total of $15,129.83 ,we showed an operating loss of $6,496.12.

We did free and part-free work amounting to $19,836.56 during the year.

With a rated capacity of 95 beds, exclusive of infants, we had an average of 88.8 patients daily. Including the above depreciations in the cost of operation, our daily cost per patient day was $7.29.

Strenuous efforts have been made, and are now being made, in the reduction of our operating costs. A comparison of the month of May this year with May of last year will illustrate our success so far. Operating cost May, 1930, $20,860.44; May, 1931, $15,570.18. We have just put into effect a reduction in our salary schedule that will further reduce our operating cost $660 per month.

J. W. EFAW, Business Manager.

AREA WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

We, your Committee of the Area World Service Council, desire to express our gratitude to Almighty God and our appreciation to our people that more than 95 per cent of the charges of this Conference share in World Service giving. We note that the percentage of decrease in benevolent giving is less than the percentage of decrease in ministerial support.

We desire to call the attention of our people to the present urgency, as indicated by the statement of our presiding Bishop, that we can achieve more for the Christian conquest of the world in the next fifteen years than has been accomplished in the last fifteen centuries.

In view of the tremendous urgency of our World Service program, therefore be it, Resolved: 1. That during the coming Conference year an intensive educational missionary campaign be conducted in every church, Sunday school, and Epworth League throughout the bounds of our Conference for the dissemination of missionary information, with the view of getting every person associated with our church to have some share in our program of World Service giving.

2. That a missionary council of three or more be established in each local church, one of whom shall be the councilor to receive and distribute literature from our World Service central office.

3. That an every-member canvass for World Service be inaugurated on every charge in the Conference; that the third Sunday in October be observed as Missionary Sunday, and that every available dollar be collected and remitted so as to reach Chicago by October 31.

4. That each month all available World Service money be remitted to the central office, and that we will aim to send at least each month a percentage of our World Service allotment to correspond to the percentage of the amount of salary we have received.

5. In order that our people may be informed in the use to which a portion of this World Service fund is being devoted, we request that there be published in our Conference Minutes a detailed statement of the aid-receiving charges of this Conference and the amount appropriated to each from the fund entrusted to our District Superintendents for distribution from the Home Mission Board.

J. R. BUTLER, Chairman.
MARK FREEMAN, Secretary.

INSTITUTIONAL BENEVOLENCES

Your Committee on Conference Benevolences, having carefully considered the askings of the various Conference institutions for the coming year, recommends that the following amounts be apportioned to the charges of the Pacific Northwest Conference:

Northwest Training School	$13,500
Wesley Foundation	13,500
Total	$27,000

We suggest that the apportionments to the several charges be made on the four-point basis and distributed according to the claims of the institutions involved.

Whereas Paragraph 114, Section 8, Article 2, in the Discipline states, "The benevolent budget shall include provision for the quota or amounts sought by authority of the official board for the several Annual Conference benevolences," your committee recommends that in accordance with the above, askings as apportioned and designated by the Annual Conference be presented to the first Quarterly Conferences, to the end that said askings be placed in the benevolent budget.

E. J. HUSTON, Chairman.
P. H. RAYMOND, Secretary.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

Considering the present condition of unemployment and anticipating still greater distress among the unemployed this winter, we, the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, call upon our ministers and people to open their hearts and their churches to perform various types of service for the unemployed and unfortunate in every way. In addition to measures of amelioration, we would with heart-searching look into the causes of this distress and faithfully present to our congregations the principles our church has enunciated in the social creed of the churches as printed in our Discipline.

We call attention to one of the basic causes which is continuously operating to create periodical depressions and periodical unemployment, namely, that we create the material goods of life faster than they are consumed. When manufacturing is compelled to stop, the laborers who helped to create wealth become unemployed and are compelled to be dependent upon charity. Industrial production and profits are increasing faster than we are learning to distribute them justly.

We call upon our Methodist laymen to conduct their industry and business in accordance with the principles of our Lord Jesus, placing brotherhood and human values before material profits.

To alleviate and improve the present condition, we recommend the following:

1. That the hours of labor be reduced, thus giving employment to more people.

2. That wherever possible wages be maintained, so that all who labor may more equitably share in the profits of industry and possess the buying power which is the basis of production.

3. If it is incumbent upon capital to put aside a surplus so that those who have made financial investments may be assured returns during the lean years, it is as vitally and morally necessary to provide some protection during such lean periods for those who have invested of their labor.

The recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, denying citizenship to Professor Douglas Macintosh and Miss Marie Bland on the ground that they "were not attached to the principles of the Constitution" because they wished to reserve the right to decline to bear arms in any war which they consider to be unjust and against the will of God, is considered by us to be an attack upon the inviolability and freedom of conscience which is the very foundation of religion and human morality.

Considering also that the Paris Peace Pact entered into by the United States with fifty-three nations of the earth, all nations except three South American Republics becomes international law for signatory nations, qualifying and limiting the war power.

Therefore be it resolved that we hereby highly commend the minority opinion as being consistent with the righteousness which must be the basis of human laws.

Also be it resolved that, considering the statements regarding war made by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as printed in our Discipline, and also the statements of the Methodist Peace Commission, we hereby memorialize the General Conference of 1932 to urge the Federal Government of the United States to grant to conscientious objectors to war who are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, or who are members of other churches holding similar convictions regarding war, the same immunities and considerations which are given to the Society of Friends and other denominations with like attitudes toward war.

Be it resolved that we respectfully protest against chapter 103 of the Session Laws of 1931 of the State of Washington, requiring an oath of allegiance from all teachers serving in this State.

Resolved, That we look with disfavor on the compulsory feature of military training in our colleges, and we commend to the earnest consideration of faculties and regents of Washington colleges the attitude of the land-grant colleges, notably the Oregon State College, which exempts students on the ground of religious objection, and so state this in their catalogue.

Resolved, That we reaffirm previous action of Washington and General Conferences in urging America's entrance into the World Court.

Resolved, That in view of the need for education in the significance of the World Disarmament Conference, we urge our pastors and laymen that they take the lead where necessary in organizing local committees on disarmament. Be it further resolved that we pledge to President Hoover every possible support in his efforts to reduce armaments by international agreements, and we respectfully urge upon him the necessity of the careful selection of a delegation pledged to use every effort to secure drastic reduction of the fearful costs of war preparation.

In view of the growing interest of the Methodist Episcopal Church and in view of the recent statements of our church relative to the need of industrial adjustment, the Social Service Commission of the Pacific Northwest Conference memorializes the said Conference to create a Commission for the purpose of making a thorough study of "an adequate and brotherly distribution of ministerial compensation," and report their findings to the next session of our Annual Conference.

The Social Service Commission requests this Conference to authorize that a place on the Conference program be arranged for a public meeting of this Commission at the next session of the Annual Conference.

We nominate the following members: J. M. Adams, E. C. Newham, and R. D. Decker, to cooperate with the Conference Program Committee for this purpose.

TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION, AND PUBLIC MORALS

That since we have State legislation which, if properly enforced, would bring about conditions relating to salacious, obscene literature that would meet with our approval, we would urge our pastors and people to cooperate with all other agencies in having the law made effective in each community.

Since the regulation of the public dance or suppression is in the hands of the people of each locality through town and city government and boards of county commissioners, we most earnestly entreat our pastors and congregations to see that these officials have regard for, and comply with, their oath of office.

We most heartily endorse the Parent-Teachers' organization in its efforts to curb the use of tobacco by teachers and pupils in school buildings and on or about school grounds and everywhere else.

We commend President Hoover for his continued, consistent example and his persistent efforts in upholding prohibition. We note with pleasure the determination of Attorney-General Mitchell and Senator Wesley L. Jones to appoint to office only men who personally observe the prohibition laws to lead in their enforcement.

We rejoice in the signal leadership given our church in the cause of temperance and prohibition and public morals by our own secretary, Dr. Clarence True Wilson. We do heartily commend to the general church the work of our board in their already-successful campaign of signing the pledge against the use of intoxicating liquors.

We look with approval upon the cooperative efforts of The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Federation of Women's Clubs, and the Anti-Saloon League to create and secure the adoption of a selective scientific course on the effects of alcohol upon the human system, to be used in the public schools of Washington.

We commend the action of Senator C. C. Dill in presenting Senate Resolution 495, asking for an investigation of the motion-picture industry, and promise him our support to obtain such an investigation.

OWEN J. BEADLES, Chairman.
PERCY E. PIKE, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS AND LITERATURE

We, your Committee on Publications and Literature, call the attention of the Conference to the move toward economy projected by the Book Committee at its meeting May 1, 1931.

We note that the deficit complained of is chargeable chiefly to the Epworth Herald, the old Methodist Review, and the foreign-language and Negro publications, which are considered to be missionary propositions. Less than one third of this deficit is due to the official Advocates, and only two fifths of that is due to Pacific Coast papers.

The weak spot in the Book Committee's report is its recommendation for three papers that will not do away with the deficit. To accomplish that would require a single paper published at Chicago, for geographical and postal reasons. But if there is to be more than one paper, there is no good reason for singling out the Pacific Coast Methodists and requiring them to bear the chief burden involved.

The Pacific Coast papers have a larger percentage of subscribers to members than any other of the official Advocates and a larger participation by pastors of subscription-getting. We raised last year in this Conference $105,000 for Disciplinary benevolences, $75,000 of which was for World Service. This could not possibly have been done without the aid of the Pacific Christian Advocate.

We therefore urge our representatives in General Conference to give serious consideration to these facts.

We desire to express our appreciation for the inspiring and practical treatment of the Sunday-school lessons under the leadership of Dr. Lucius H. Bugbee.

We commend the Book Concern for the discontinuance of The Methodist Review, which had outlived its usefulness, and are eagerly looking forward to the issuance of the new quarterly of religion, which will be better fitted to meet the needs of our time.

We heartily commend the work of the American Bible Society, which last year distributed over one million volumes per month.

The remarkable service done for the blind by enabling them to obtain copies of the Scriptures in the English systems, and the enabling of the blind poor to purchase Scriptures at the low price of 25 cents per volume, and the record of visitation sale and distribution of Bibles in so many languages, is worthy of your hearty cooperation and support.

For the observance of Bible Sunday last year mail was supplied to over one half of the Protestant pastors in this country. We therefore commend the observance of Universal Bible Day on December 6, and bespeak your hearty cooperation for this worthy cause.

GEORGE W. COOPER, Chairman.
JOHN A. HOFFMAN.

TACOMA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The new Goodwill Building of four floors of reinforced concrete at 2356 Tacoma Avenue was dedicated this year. It forms a suitable place for our work. The building is not finished throughout, but we are using every part of it.

The financial depression struck us particularly hard, as prices on all commodities went down, and there were hundreds more people needing help. This occurred just as we were moving into the new building and needed more money.

Thirty-one thousand dollars was paid out in 1930 to 1,100 different handicapped people. The gratitude of people receiving this aid was satisfying, especially as the glory was given to God and the church of Jesus Christ.

Rev. U. O. Beadles was found to be especially fine as a chaplain in the County Hospital, and as many of the Goodwill people went there when sick, the Goodwill appointed hi n as the Goodwill chaplain for a half day a week. This has been the source of not only comfort to many, but many have found Christ through his ministrations.

Each Monday evening we have a fellowship supper, followed by a Bible-study class, after which is a preaching or other religious service. Thus is the Goodwill ministering to the neighborhood in a spiritual way. Many other religious activities are carried on, such as three prayer meetings on different days at 7.40 A. M. A Sunday-school lesson study and much personal work. The Lord is certainly blessing the work, for souls are being saved.

H. W. MICHENER, Superintendent.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, assembled in the city of Yakima, acknowledge our dependence upon Almighty God and render to him our praise and thanksgiving for blessings bestowed. Also we recognize ourselves as recipients of many kindnesses while here, for which we wish to express our sincere thanks. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we reaffirm our love and loyalty to our heavenly Father and pledge to him our allegiance and the devoted service of our lives in whatever field his providence may lead us.

That we express to our presiding Bishop, Edgar Blake, our sincere appreciation for his genial, brotherly spirit in presiding over and administration of the affairs of the Conference. Also for his inspiring addresses, which have been instructive and helpful to us.

We are most grateful to the pastor, the officials, and the people of this church for a hospitality and gracious courtesies beyond numbering. Especially are we thankful to our hostesses, the women of the church.

To Dr. Charles E. Keeler; Mrs. Percy Steadman, organist; the Keeler A. Capella Chorus, and many delightful soloists for a ministry of music so beautiful that it will dwell in our memories forever.

To the splendid troop of Boy Scouts who rendered so many good turns to those attending the Conference.

For the stirring and challenging addresses of Mr. Charles Haffke on law enforcement, and of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, on temperance and moral reform we express our sincere appreciation.

To the Burroughs Adding Machine Company for supplying the Treasurer and Statistician with adding machines, thereby greatly facilitating their work.

Also we gratefully acknowledge the spiritual blessings brought to us in the inspiring addresses of Dr. E. Guy Cutshall, president of Iliff School of Theology, Denver.

Also we have enjoyed the presence of Mrs. Edgar Blake, wife of our presiding Bishop, and the helpfulness of her illuminating address to The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

To Professor Brosnan, of the University of Idaho, for his wonderful lecture on Jason Lee, and to Dr. T. S. Burnett, of Chattanooga, for his uplifting address, we confess ourselves to be greatly their debtors.

To the press of the city of Yakima and their courteous reporters and to the Spokane Chronicle we give our thanks for their generous publicity.

Our special thanks are due to Mr. Ernest Peterson of the Oregon Journal who so ably reported the proceedings of the Conference in the columns of his paper and who also gave such efficient aid in compiling the list of appointments.

And last, though by no means least, are we grateful for, and happy in, the presence of our own area Bishop, Titus Lowe. Always to us an inspiring leader, a kind and helpful brother, a most able administrator, we hereby express our sincere desire for his return to our area for another quadrennium.

VERN A. SPICKER, Chairman.
JOHN SECOR, Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDS

The apportionment to the charges for the support of the Conference Claimants shall be seven and one half per cent of the total ministerial support, including house rent, plus the amount paid for current expenses as shown by the Minutes of 1930 (always taking into consideration that these figures are but three fourths of a full year), minus a fair allowance for interest in the case of burdensome indebtedness, and providing further that no church shall pay more than $1.75 per member.

MEMOIRS

REV. ROBERT E. GORNALL

Dr. R. E. Gornall, associate director in the bureau of Publicity and Promotion of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died in Philadelphia, Wednesday morning, July 30, following an illness of a few days only. The funeral was conducted in Landsdowne, Pennsylvania, August 2, with Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt in charge.

Doctor Gornall was born March 13, 1878, in Rawtenstall, England. As a boy he migrated with his family to the United States, settling in New Bedford, Massachusetts. Feeling a call to the ministry, he entered Taylor University and was graduated there. He was also graduated from DePauw University. In 1905 he married Miss Dorothy Christensen. He joined the North Indiana Conference in 1906, and was then transferred to the Columbia River Conference. He worked there until his conspicuous success in promoting missions in the local church and his unusual ability as an orator brought him into the work of the Portland Area. In 1920 he was transferred to the Centenary Conservation office in Chicago, where he was employed for eight years. For the past year and a half he has been with the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

It was while on a trip to Dakota for the bureau that he suffered a renewed attack of a malady that had tormented him for some years, and within a few days of his return he was gone. He leaves a widow, two daughters—Lois and Bernice—a brother—William Gornall, who is a Methodist pastor in the Pacific Northwest Conference—and Lever Gornall, another brother, who is in business in Spokane, Washington.

REV. CALEB C. CURRY

Caleb C. Curry was born April 14, 1874, at Tweed, Ontario, Canada. When a young man he came to Michigan, and was led into the ministry under the influence of Dwight L. Moody. He entered the Moody School in Chicago, and later went to Albion College, where he graduated in 1907. While at Albion Brother Curry was assistant pastor at Jackson Street Church, Jackson, Michigan.

He joined the Michigan Conference in 1902, and came west in 1907 and joined the Columbia River Conference. He became one of the influential members of that Conference, and not only served many large churches, but also as a District Superintendent of the Wenatchee District.

Doctor Curry had a serious illness overtake him and was left without work for some time. Returning to active work, he transferred and served a very successful pastorate at Tibbetts Memorial Church, Seattle. He had just accepted the pastorate at Lewiston, Idaho, and drove to Salem for a brief rest. Returning, he stopped for a night's rest at Pendleton, and was stricken during the night and died suddenly.

He leaves a widow, two children—Helen and Rolland, by a former marriage, who reside in Salem, Oregon—two sisters—Mrs. Kelly, of Vernon, B. C., and Mrs. Lynn, of New Westminster, B. C—and two brothers in Michigan.

Dr. Curry drew many people to him whose love he always retained. Those who did not know him sufficiently to love him did admire him for his spirit and ability.

Doctor Curry was sincerely conscientious, devoted to his Lord, and earnest in his labors. He longed to find the ways of God and walk in them. His life inspired the people whom he served. His ministry is marked with successes.

He passed away August 6, 1930. The quietness with which he slipped away is a token of the eternal peace of his soul. Funeral services were held in Spokane. Dr. J. Ralph Magee was in charge, assisted by Dr. Paul H. Ashby and Dr. T. W. Jeffrey.

The church at Lewiston evidenced the love he had already secured when a delegation came to Spokane to attend his memorial service.

REV. FRED LESLIE BALDWIN

Rev. Leslie Baldwin was born near Warren, Pennsylvania, October 6, 1857, and passed to his reward in Tacoma, Washington, August 25, 1930. He was the youngest and the last of a large family. He was educated at Hamline University and Garrett Biblical Institute.

Early in life he was called to the ministry and served two years as a supply before he united with the Rock River Conference in 1886. After serving in that Conference for twenty-four years he transferred to the Puget Sound Conference in 1910, and served acceptably and successfully at Mason, Tacoma; Chehalis, Mt. Vernon, South Bend, Montesano, and Ronald, Seattle. At Mason, Mt. Vernon, and Ronald he carried through successfully, building enterprises. He took the retired relation in 1926, and has since served as supply at Summit and Wesley Church, Tacoma, being pastor of the latter church when he was taken.

He was united in marriage with Mary Caskey, August 17, 1888, and his wife survives him. The only other relatives left are two nieces—Mrs. Gertrude C. Chittenden, Kent, Washington, and Mrs. Burt, Seattle—and two nephews—Charles Johnson, Puyallup, and Herbert Baldwin Kent.

The funeral services were held in Tacoma on August 28. The services were in charge of the Rev. Dr. Harold Perry, District Superintendent, who delivered the address. Dr. J. Ralph Magee, District Superintendent of the Seattle District, and Dr. Edward H. Todd, president College of Puget Sound, had the prayers. Dr. Spencer S. Sulliger, a former District Superintendent, read the Scripture lesson and the Rev. Joel Vigus read the obituary.

REV. J. C. KIRKMAN

The Rev. J. C. Kirkman, who was ordained a Methodist preacher in 1868 and continued forty-seven years in the ministry, died August 30, 1930, at the Deaconess Hospital, Spokane, Washington. Had he lived until September 9 he would have been eighty-nine years old. Mrs. Kirkman is also a patient at the hospital, suffering from ailments incident to old age.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John C. Kirkman were married in Burlingame, Kansas, April 3, 1872. In 1875 they came to the "Inland Empire," and have since resided in this region. In those days the trip was made by the old Central Pacific Railway to Sacramento, thence by boat to San Francisco, where another boat was taken to Portland. They reached Walla Walla by traveling from Portland by steamer up the Columbia and Snake Rivers to Riparia, thence by stage.

The Rev. Dr. Kirkman was born at Guilford College, North Carolina, September 8, 1842. After the Civil War he moved to Iowa, and later joined the movement to Kansas, being a school-teacher in each State.

In the early days church work was largely of a missionary nature, so that he was called on to travel thousands of miles by stage and on horseback, visiting the mining camps in southern and central Idaho and the ranches north of the Snake River in Washington. During this time headquarters were at Idaho City, Idaho, and Pendleton, Oregon.

He was "among those present" at two stage robberies. One occurred when the stage was but a few miles from Pendleton, on which occasion the robbers forced the passengers to line up and be searched.

As the country began to secure settlements, regular pastorates took the place of circuit-riding, and they served various charges in the Spokane country. Among these were: Goldendale, Moscow, Pendleton, Waitsburg, Pomeroy, Sprague, Colton, Hillyard, Asotin, Tekoa, Endicott, Harrison, and Moran. They first visited Spokane in 1884. Later they purchased a home at 539 East Glass Avenue, where they resided since 1908.

Doctor Kirkman joined the Masonic Lodge at Jamestown, North Carolina, sixty-six years ago. He is believed to have been a member for a longer period than any other Mason in this State. He and Mrs. Kirkman were members of the Electa Chapter of the Eastern Star for forty-one years.

An activity carried on by the Rev. Dr. Kirkman was the writing of letters of condolence to persons who had lost a relative by death. During the last eighteen years letters from his pen have gone to more than 3,000 families, carrying messages of hope and faith and comfort. He published three small volumes of sermons and Masonic addresses. During the years he married more than 400 couples.

Besides Mrs. Kirkman, one son—Wilbur—manager of the Cowles Reference Library, survives.

REV. FRED S. PEARSON

Funeral services for Rev. Fred S. Pearson, who died suddenly Monday evening, December 28, 1930, at his home, 811 East 34th Street, Tacoma, were held Friday at 1.30 P. M., at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, East 35th and "F" Streets, Rev. O. J. Beadles officiating. Burial was in Tacoma Cemetery.

Rev. Pearson had made his residence in Tacoma since retiring from the ministry in 1922. He had been affiliated with the church since early in years, and a minister since 1892. He joined the Puget Sound Conference in 1892, and acceptably served churches in Port Orchard, Fern Hill, Elma, Chehalis, and Centralia. He was superintendent of the Olympia District. He also occupied pulpits in Fowler (now Trinity), Tacoma, Sumner, Salmon Creek, and Parkland.

Rev. Pearson was in good health until a few minutes before he was fatally stricken. He was actively engaged in civic affairs during his pastorates, and a short time before his death had taken food to a needy family.

Rev. Pearson is survived by his wife, Sylvia, of the home, and four sons—Henry F., of Chicago; Oscar H., of Pennsylvania; Eben F., of Chehalis; Walter C., of Chicago; and one daughter, Ethel Mae, of San Francisco.

He was born in New Hampshire, February 6, 1851, and would have been eighty his next birthday. He had been married fifty-seven years.

REV. HENRY BROWN

Funeral services for the Rev. Henry Brown, D.D., were held at Pomona, California, January 22, in charge of his pastor, Rev. Dr. W. L. Y. Davis. Dr. Henry I. Rasmus, formerly of Columbia River Conference, gave an eloquent tribute to the life and work of Doctor Brown, rich with memories of their unbroken friendship of forty-five years, and with full recognition of the lasting value of his work to the Methodism of eastern Washington. Two other old-time friends, also Conference associates—Rev. H. L. Beightol, of Redlands, and Rev. J. P. Barker, of Burbank—shared in the services. Still another—Rev. J. Willard Miller, of Seattle—was present. Several other Spokane friends were among the large number gathered to honor the dead. The local I. O. O. F. was represented, and at the close the G. A. R. Post conducted their ritual. Pending later arrangements, the body rests for the present in the receiving vault.

Doctor Brown had been ill about three months, and finding that surgery offered the only hope of relief, he entered the Pomona Valley Hospital early in January, his wife, Eva Foster Brown, being permitted to remain there with him. From the first operation he made very satisfactory recovery. On his last Sabbath—a bright, happy day—he listened with pleasure to the reading aloud from the Pacific Edition. He repeated the Twenty-third Psalm, and referred serenely to the possibility that he might not be here on the morrow. That night he slept well and went calmly through the operation, but soon afterward symptoms of heart failure developed, and he died that afternoon, January 19, 1931.

Doctor Brown was born in Ohio, July 20, 1848. He entered the ministry in 1871, and served fourteen years as a charter member and pioneer preacher in northwest Iowa. He came to Columbia River in 1885, and at the time of his retirement in 1912 had been forty-one years in the active work. While Presiding Elder of Spokane District he was delegate to the General Conference of 1900.

It should not be forgotten that Doctor Brown was an ardent champion of prohibition through its early and unpopular campaigns, and he rejoiced to see the passing of the Eighteenth Amendment. He wrote much and was scholarly in his attainments, wide in reading, deep in his research of life and the affairs of men.

Doctor Brown had a gift for friendship and was widely beloved. An alert mind, sweet and affectionate disposition, a strong sense of humor, a militant courage in defending the right and in opposing injustice, a firm belief in the power of Christ to save, were among his characteristics.

Sleep on, great heart. Some day the mighty summons
Shall rend in power the earth, the sky, the sea;
Then Christ shall say, "Come up, come up forever,
And rest at home and peace with me."

REV. JOSEPH W. SATTERTHWAITE

Joseph Wallace Satterthwaite was born near Lloydsville, Ohio, December 4, 1850. He was raised on an Ohio farm, and taught school previous to entering college. Completing his theological course at Scio College, Ohio, he graduated from there in 1880. This same college later conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was married in 1881 to Louisa M. Spencer, also of Lloydsville, Ohio. They began pastorate work together on his first charge at Lyttlesburg, Ohio, his wife faithfully helping him in his work all through his pastorate. Other charges followed in the East Ohio Conference. His experiences were many and varied in these charges, including those of an early circuit rider. Everywhere he made himself welcome and his sincerity felt. The rigors of Eastern winters proving too hard for the health of a delicate family, now consisting of wife and two daughters—Elizabeth and Dorothea—and yielding to the lure of the West and its promise, he made arrangements to exchange appointments with another minister wishing to go East. He entered the Puget Sound Conference, with Hoquiam as his first charge. From here he was transferred to Olympia, which proved so homelike that when he retired from the ministry a number of years later he returned to Olympia to make his home. Other charges served in Puget Sound Conference were: Mason Church, Tacoma; Asbury Church, Seattle; and, lastly, Puyallup, where, after two years of service, he was forced to retire from the ministry by broken health, closing a period of thirty-five years' active service in the ministry. With outdoor work on his small farm near Olympia he recovered a large measure of his health, and was active in the Olympia Church. Advancing years forced him to give up his work at the Olympia home, and he removed to Puyallup in September, 1929. Here he purchased a home for himself and his faithful wife, where they passed their forty-ninth wedding anniversary last October. After a lingering illness he passed away at the family home in Puyallup, March 10, 1931.

The funeral was held on March 12, at Puyallup, B. F. Brooks, E. J. Huston, H. O. Perry, and E. H. Todd participating. Interment was in Tacoma.

REV. JOSEPH F. REDFERN

Rev. Joseph F. Redfern was born in Nemaha County, Nebraska, November 18, 1860, and passed to his eternal home March 16, 1931. When seventeen years of age he entered the Peru Normal in Nebraska, and in June, 1880, received his teacher's diploma. After teaching one year he returned to the school for further education.

In 1883 he was united in marriage to Lydia V. Clark, of Auburn, Nebraska, where three children were born unto them. In 1900 the family moved to the coast and settled in Bay View, Washington, where he joined the Puget Sound Conference and preached his first sermon. Here he remained as pastor of the church for three years. After serving several charges in the Puget Sound Conference, he was transferred, in 1906, to the Columbia River Conference, and served Republic, Bickelton, and other charges, taking the supernumerary relation in 1912, on account of the ill health of Mrs. Redfern. The family then moved to the State of Montana and secured a homestead, where they lived for nine years, in the meantime taking a retired relation.

In 1921, after traveling in Canada as far north as Prince George, for health reasons, they came back to the States, and Rev. Redfern again took charge of the church at Bay View, where he preached his last sermon. Later the family moved to Mt. Vernon, where they have resided for the past five years.

Rev. Redfern was the oldest of a family of seven boys, and the first to pass into the home beyond. His brothers are Charles F. and John W., of Spokane; Elsie W. and Carey, of Auburn, Nebraska; Doc, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Alfred, of California. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lydia Redfern and three children—Mrs. R. L. Barr, Mrs. M. N. Zook, and Wilbur F. Redfern, all of Mount Vernon. He also has ten grandchildren and many friends who mourn his passing.

Rev. Redfern had the unusual privilege of uniting in marriage his three children and baptizing his ten grandchildren.

He was a man of strong convictions and high Christian ideals, and was ever loyal to his family, his friends, his country, and his God. He loved the work of his church for young people and was especially interested in boys.

REV. MELMOTH A. COVINGTON

Rev. Melmoth A. Covington, a member of the Pacific Northwest Conference, passed to the better life at Walla Walla, Washington, March 24. He was born at Ruthburg, Maryland, September 7, 1862. He received his higher education in Little Rock University and Boston University, graduating from the latter institution in 1890. He joined the Puget Sound Conference in 1891, and his first charge was at Castle Rock. Then followed pastorates at Lynden, Madison Street, Seattle; Aberdeen, Colfax, Anacortes, Skagway, Alaska; Puyallup, and Mason Church in Tacoma. In 1905 he was appointed an agent of the Washington Children's Home and remained in this work the rest of his earthly life. In 1920 he became superintendent of the Northern Idaho Children's Home Society. As superintendent of the Home in Lewiston he showed marked ability. Under his skillful guiding hand this Home became one of the outstanding institutions of its type in the whole West. He became a national leader in the work of rescuing and in conserving the social and moral welfare of children. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club and the Knights of Pythias. He always took a deep interest in every phase of community life. He came to Walla Walla last November, and was tenderly cared for by his wife and daughter, Mrs. E. G. Bryant. Everything known to medical science was done, but he finally succumbed to pernicious cancerous growth. The writer was with Brother Covington frequently during the last five months of his life. He knew full well that he was fighting a losing physical battle. His faith was unshaken, his hope undimmed, his demeanor calm, his outlook optimistic, his gratitude to God and folks unfailing, his end triumphant. He talked to me freely and calmly about going to heaven and about the sustaining grace of God. I am sure he helped me more than I helped him.

The funeral was held in Pioneer Church, and was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Robert Brumblay and Rev. E. H. Harold. Doctor Brumblay paid a fine tribute to the man and his work. The body was buried in the beautiful Walla Walla cemetery, where the body of Rev. Henry Brown was buried only about a month before. Brother Covington was married at Rockland, Massachusetts, August 18, 1890, to Anne Lantz, who survives him. Four children survive, as follows: Marde E. Covington, Salem, Oregon; Willard L. Covington, Seattle; Mrs. Constance Covington Bryant, Walla Walla, and Melmoth A. Covington, Jr., Hillsboro, Oregon. He also leaves three brothers—the Rev. Luther J. Covington, Bellingham, Washington; J. W. Covington, Los Angeles, and Frank B. Covington, Seattle. Also two sisters—Mrs. Mayme E. Anderson, San Diego, and Mrs. Sadie Earl Gregg, Cleveland, Ohio. Four grandchildren also survive.

ROBERT ELMER SMITH.

REV. JAMES M. DENISON

James M. Denison was born in Waukon, Illinois, April 1, 1863. Died in Seattle, Washington, May 19, 1931, in his sixty-second year. He was married in December, 1887, to Laura Shaw, at Yakima, Washington. She survives. He joined the Conference (Idaho) at Enterprise in 1888. Next he came to the Columbia River Conference and, after ten years in these two Conferences, he was transferred to Puget Sound Conference. He took the retired relation in 1918.

He was ordained deacon in Columbia River Conference by Bishop Vincent, August 23, 1890, at Union, Oregon; elder, by Bishop Walden, December 25, 1892, at Walla Walla, Washington. He served the following charges in the Idaho and Columbia River Conferences: Enterprise, Summerville, Wasco, Arlington, Heppner, Hood River. In Puget Sound Conference: Haven, Conference evangelist, City Mission, Madrona Heights, Inter-Bay, Shaw Memorial.

His Quarterly Conference membership was at Bethel Church, Seattle (Inter-Bay), where he had been pastor for three years and where he was greatly beloved. During his retirement his interest in the Kingdom increased with the years. His bright and happy spirit, his unquenchable zeal and willing and enthusiastic service given to help his brethren in their work, made him a blessing to all. Brother Denison had scholastic training and was a student to the end. He had a progressive type of mind and gloried in the progress of a changing world and an advancing church. He knew how to build a sermon and how to preach it with telling effect, always exalting Christ and drawing people to him.

He leaves a wife, two daughters—Zoe, who married E. A. Edwards, and resident in Alaska, and Laura, who married John A. Frank, resident of Cedar Falls, Washington; one son—Harland, at Seattle; three grandchildren; one brother, and one sister.

Funeral services were held at the Home Undertaking Parlors, Seattle, May 23. The following brethren took part: C. A. Wright, F. A. LaViolette, J. H. Beall, U. F. Hawk, R. N. Orrill, and A. H. Lathrop, the latter delivering the sermon.

A. H. L.

REV. CLIFFORD D. RAREY

Clifford D. Rarey was born June 29, 1872, and died in San Francisco, California, June 1, 1931. He was married to Miss Luella Fisher, February 19, 1896. He entered the ministry of the Evangelical Church in Indiana in the spring of that year and served for sixteen years, of which he spent four years at North Central College, at Naperville, Illinois. He was admitted to the Columbia River Conference in 1912 and to the Puget Sound Conference in 1918, becoming a member of the Pacific Northwest Conference with the merger. He was pastor of the Kelso Methodist Episcopal Church at the time of his death, June 1, 1931, at San Francisco, California.

Brother Rarey was an honored member of the Conference, a faithful and beloved pastor. He leaves behind him many evidences of a successful ministry. The church at Kelso will long stand as an altar upon which he literally gave himself a living sacrifice. "He being dead yet speaketh."

Brother Rarey had been in poor health for the past year. Soon after Conference last year he went to California for treatment, hoping that he might soon return to his work. He fought a hard battle for life, but death finally claimed all that was mortal, while his soul passed on to that better land, as we would expect of one who confidently said, "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Funeral services were held in Kelso and in Tacoma. He leaves a host of friends and a rich endowment of precious memories. Surviving him are his wife—Mrs. Luella Rarey; two sons—Rev. Harry Rarey and Russell Rarey, and one daughter—Miss Esther Rarey, and one sister—Miss Clara Belle Rarey, of Spokane, Washington.

Interment was made in the Tacoma Mausoleum, Friday, June 5, 1931.

J. T. McQUEEN.

REV. JACOB E. WEIGLE

Jacob E. Weigle was born near Belington, West Virginia, June 10, 1878, and, after a long illness, passed away in Tacoma, Washington, June 17, 1931, aged fifty-three years.

On September 24, 1904, he was married to Zaidee Miller, at Parsons, West Virginia. He was educated in the Wesleyan Seminary, at Buckhannon, West Virginia, and at Ohio Wesleyan.

He was received on trial in the West Virginia Conference in 1902, and was ordained elder by Bishop Quayle in 1908. He joined the Iowa Conference in 1906, and was transferred to the Columbia River Conference in 1910 and the Puget Sound Conference in 1914. He served Saint George and Cranesbill, in West Virginia; Brighton and Ainsworth, in Iowa; Odessa, Leavenworth, Newport, and Elk River, in the Columbia River Conference; and Regents Park, in the Puget Sound Conference.

He was a strong preacher, an enthusiastic worker, and a man whose whole life and character were above reproach. He was genial and kindly, and had an unusual faculty for meeting and gripping men.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters—Ruth and Miriam, of Tacoma; also one brother of Youngstown, Ohio, and one sister, of Pasadena, California.

EUNICE FIELD MARLATT

Eunice Field was born in Columbus, Ohio, November 3, 1861. After attending the common schools she matriculated in McKendree College, where she graduated. She moved, with her parents, to St. Louis, Missouri, where she met Rev. Joseph P. Marlatt, to whom she was married, April 3, 1884. All of her married life was spent in a Methodist parsonage until the retirement of her husband in 1925.

Two things were held by her as of greatest importance—her family and her church, and to both she gave the best she had of strength and service. No call for aid or help was left unanswered. She was a discriminating student of the Bible, and was in constant use as a teacher of adult Bible classes. But it was to the work of The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society that she devoted the main energies of her life. Often called to the presidency of the district where she was living, she led the women with wise counsels. It was only a few weeks before her passing that she relinquished her active interest in the work of the society.

WINNIFRED SMITH

Miss Winnifred Smith, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Smith, was born in southern Michigan, April 29, 1875. She was crowned at the Deaconess Hospital, Wenatchee, Washington, Tuesday morning at 5.50, April 28, 1931. Surviving her is a brother—T. Allen Smith, of Grand Rapids, Michigan—and a host of friends, who mourn the loss of her physical presence, but who rejoice in her triumphant victory of life.

"All did she love,
And spoke no ill.
'Twas such a pleasant task
To do her Master's will."

At the age of seventeen she graduated from the Frankfort High School. In 1909, at the age of thirty-four, she graduated from the Chicago Training School, where she became a deaconess of the church she loved. The same year she was appointed to Asbury Hospital, Minneapolis, where she served as housemother, Bible teacher, and spiritual adviser to the girls. Four years later, when the hospital was taken over by the government, she found her work in the orphanage at Everett, Washington. Two years she cared for the tiny folks who craved and needed the mother love which Winnifred Smith could give.

Miss Smith and Mrs. Tucker came to Wenatchee together in February, 1916, and began service in the Deaconess Hospital when it was but seven months old. During her fifteen years of service here she has been an untiring worker in whatever department she was needed. No task was too menial, no burden too heavy. Cooking, sewing, teaching the Bible, conducting prayer groups, answering the telephone, writing poetry, or whatever the task, it was always done graciously and cheerfully. She had time for everyone and everything.

Besides her regular hospital duties, she was a steady, willing worker in the church, Sunday school, and missionary societies. In a quiet, unassuming way she exemplified the Christ in her daily living. It can truly be said her life has been an inspiration and a benediction to everyone who knew her.

RULES GOVERNING CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS

1. Admission on Trial.

(a) No person shall be admitted on trial who is past thirty years of age, without a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

(b) Examinations should be taken before the date of the Annual Conference session. Arrangements for such may be made by correspondence with the chairman of the Board. Examination must be completed the day before the opening of the Annual Conference. No examinations will be given after the opening of the Conference session.

2. General Rules Governing Books to be Studied and Examinations Thereon.

(a) Attendance at Summer School is required of all undergraduates (Discipline, Par. 187, Sec. 5). Written work on the books to be studied shall be in the hands of the Area Registrar not later than the first day of the Summer School of Ministerial Training. Examinations will be given at the close of the school. N. B.: These books are not assigned to instructors of the Board of Ministerial Training.

(b) The time of submitting written work on collateral reading shall be determined by correspondence with the designated instructor. All written work on collateral reading must be in the hands of the instructors at least two weeks before the date of the Annual Conference.

(c) No student shall be advanced who has more than two incomplete subjects.

(d) Each examiner shall be required to submit grades to the Registrar not later than fifteen days after receiving papers.

(e) Each undergraduate shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents to cover postage and other expense.

(b) RULES OF ORDER

1. The Conference session shall open on Tuesday evening for brief courtesy addresses and responses and for the purpose of organization, and to administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(a) The morning sessions shall begin at 8.30 o'clock and adjourn at 12 M. The first thirty minutes shall be devotional exercises under the supervision of the Bishop presiding.

2. The bar of the Conference shall be fixed by vote.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president or any member request it, and no report from committees shall be received until duplicate copies are placed in the hands of the secretary.

4. It shall be the duty of every member to give his vote on all questions unless, for special reasons, the Conference excuses him; but no member who is not within the bar shall be allowed to vote except by consent of the Conference.

5. The vote on any question before the Conference shall be taken by roll call, if such is expressly desired by fifteen members.

6. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at any time, without permission of the Conference; nor shall anyone speak more than once until everyone desiring to speak shall have done so.

7. No member shall object to the passage of a brother's character on questions implicating his moral standing or administration, without giving previous written notice of his intention, together with the grounds thereof.

8. At the first session of the Conference each preacher who has been in charge shall submit his statistical and financial reports. The publication of reports handed in later than the second day is not required unless so ordered by the Conference.

9. The secretary shall keep a Journal of all the proceedings of the Conference, and when approved and printed, the Minutes shall become the official record of the Conference. The secretary shall take charge of the Journals and all other Conference papers, preserve them with care, suffer no person to take a copy of any papers, except with the consent of the Conference, and he shall bring or send such papers to the place of the Conference session.

10. The secretary, statistician, and treasurer shall be the official editors and publishers of the Conference Minutes, and they are authorized to make provision by assessment or otherwise upon the churches at least three months before Annual Conference for meeting the expenses of publication, of all secretarial work and all other incidental expenses incurred by the Annual Conference. This assessment shall be equal to thirty-five cents on each hundred dollars cash salary of all members and supplies serving charges; seven dollars from each District Superintendent; five dollars each from assistant pastors and effective members in detached service within the Conference. These amounts shall be paid to the Minute Fund Committee on the second day of Conference session, or the payment thereof reasonably guaranteed within sixty days after Conference adjourns. A sum equal to ten per cent of the amount received from assessments shall be turned over to the Conference Board of Trustees as a general expense fund to be disbursed by direction of the Conference, provided, however, that all other expenses shall have been met previously.

11. The secretary, statistician, and treasurer shall nominate their assistants. The officers and managers of the different Conference societies are authorized to appoint persons to fill any vacancies which may occur during the year.

12. All matter to be printed in the Journal shall be typewritten and duplicate copies delivered to the secretary before or immediately upon the adjournment of Conference.

13. Memorial Service. The following order of service is unanimously recommended by your committee: Hymn, Scripture Reading, Roll Call of Deceased Brethren (Conference standing), Prayer, Special Music, Memorial Address.

Obituaries to be limited to five hundred words, copies of which are to be in the hands of the secretary of the Conference before the adjournment of Conference for publication in the Minutes.

14. On the death of a member of the Conference it shall be the duty of the District Superintendent to notify the chairman of the Committee on Memoirs and all the preachers of that District of such death and the place and time of the funeral services. Also the chairman of the Committee on Memoirs shall inform the secretary of the dates of the birth and death and the place of death of the deceased, for publication in the Methodist Year Book.

The executive secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants shall be the chairman of the Committee on Memoirs.

15. It shall be the duty of the Auditing Committee to audit the accounts of all organizations or persons entrusted with any Conference funds whose audit is not otherwise made. In such cases where an audit has been made by registered accountants or other responsible persons, the treasurer or custodian of such funds shall be required to furnish a certificate of audit for the Conference Auditor's inspection. In every case the Conference Auditor shall report to the Conference whether an audit has been made nor not.

The Auditing Committee shall report to the Board of Stewards upon the distribution of funds received for ministerial support, noting each instance where the pro rata shares have not been paid to the pastor, district superintendent, Episcopal Fund, and Conference Claimants, after which failure to comply with the Disciplinary requirement for prorating shall be sufficient cause for careful inquiry by the Committee on Conference Relations.

16. The Committee on Conference Relations shall report on all candidates for full membership, applicants for change of relation, and supernumerary preachers who request continuance in that position.

The Committee on Ministerial Qualifications shall inquire as to the age, physical condition, personal habits, financial obligation, family, and Christian experience of all candidates for admission on trial, and shall report on the acceptability of each when his name is called for admission. This committee shall also carefully inquire into the acceptability of local preachers who are seeking orders, and report the same to the Conference.

The District Superintendents shall submit to the Committee on Conference Relations and the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, on the first day of the Conference session, names of all those who should appear before these committees, and they shall also appear before the committees to make representation concerning the candidates for Conference membership and local orders from their respective districts.

17. The Bishop, District Superintendents, and the pastor of the church where the session convenes shall be a committee to arrange the Conference program and to publish the same in the Pacific Christian Advocate before Conference meets.

18. The Committee on Conference Program shall provide a designated meeting place for each committee and for each Board. Committees shall meet from 1.30 to 3 P. M., and the Boards from 3 to 4 P. M., on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the Conference week, or until their work is completed. No sessions of the Conference shall be held on Wednesday or Thursday afternoons.

19. Whenever a proposal for federation with other local churches is made the pastor and District Superintendent shall refer the proposal to the Committee on Federation, consisting of the District Superintendent, together with three laymen and three ministers, who live within the district in which the proposed federation is located, and who are nominated by the District Superintendent of that district, which shall make a careful survey of the entire situation and report its findings to the next session of the Annual Conference.

20. Rules. The District Superintendents shall prepare a report of the work in their respective districts, the reading of which shall require not more than twelve minutes each. The Program Committee shall set aside one evening session for the reading of these reports. That the District Superintendents shall prepare one report of twelve to fifteen minutes on policies for the Conference.

21. The annual contribution of each effective member of this Conference, payable in semi-annual payments May 1st and November 1st, each year, to the "Reserve Pension Fund" of the Board of Conference Claimants shall be according to the following schedule:

Class A.	When cash salary is	$1,000 or less	$25 00
" B.	" " " "	1,001 to 1,200	30 00
" C.	" " " "	1,201 to 1,500	37 50
" D.	" " " "	1,501 to 1,800	45 00
" E.	" " " "	1,801 to 2,000	50 00
" F.	" " " "	2,001 to 2,500	60 00
" G.	" " " "	2,501 to 3,000	70 00
" H.	" " " "	3,001 to 4,000	90 00
" I.	" " " "	4,001 or Over	110 00

22. The Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, in response to the request of the Board of Conference Claimants, hereby authorizes said Board, through its Executive Committee, to take the necessary legal steps to create a "Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund," the general purpose of which shall be to receive and conserve on a reserve basis the contributions from both ministers and laymen.

(a) The contributions from the ministers, as provided in Rule 21, shall be placed in the said Reserve Pension Fund unless specifically otherwise directed.

(b) In the event of the failure of any member or probationer to pay in whole or in part the amount provided in the schedule set forth in the rules, the total amount of such deficiency or deficiencies plus five per cent interest computed annually, shall be a charge against his retirement annuity and the Board of Stewards of the Conference shall deduct from the annuity payments of such member the total amount of such deficicncy plus the accrued interest in annual installments of not less than twenty per cent of the total amount until all has been paid. These amounts shall be paid to the Board of Conference Claimants and placed in the "Reserve Pension Fund."

(c) Contributions to the Reserve Pension Fund may also be received from laymen and friends of the church, but there shall in such instances be no annuity obligations applicable thereto.

XI

PACIFIC NORTHWEST LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE

The Lay Electoral Conference of the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened at the Christian Church at Yakima, Washington, at 9 A. M., on Friday, June 19, 1931.

The meeting was called to order by Bishop Titus Lowe, with some very appropriate remarks, and, after a short devotional service, P. M. Snider, of Puyallup, Washington, the hold-over secretary of the last lay electoral conference, took the secretary's chair.

On motion by Dix Rowland, of Tacoma, a credential committee of seven was formed, the delegates from each Superintendent's district, by caucus, electing one member, the result being as follows: Puget Sound District, B. H. Ridgeway; Seattle District, B. F. Hampson; Tacoma District, Geo. E. Davis; Vancouver District, Chas. Vaughn; Columbia River District, Geo. L. Haskins; Spokane District, Geo. G. Gehrke; Walla Walla District, Dr. F. L. Pickett.

Dr. Edward Laird Mills, editor of The Christian Advocate, Pacific Edition, spoke briefly of the Advocate.

Mr. Ernest Peterson, of the Oregon Journal, was presented and made a few remarks on our church paper.

Mr. B. N. Hicks, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, was introduced and made a brief talk.

The Committee on Credentials reported and, after some revisions, 133 delegates were seated and committee was given authority to seat others arriving later with proper certificates. (See lists of delegates.)

Nominations for a permanent chairman were: C. D. Foster, of Chehalis, and Dix Rowland, of Tacoma. Mr. Rowland withdrew in favor of Mr. Foster, and, on motion, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Foster.

Nominees for permanent secretary were: Dix Rowland, of Tacoma, and J. Elmer Bovey, of Sedro-Woolley, Washington. Mr. Rowland withdrew, and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Bovey.

On motion, it was ordered that the Committee on Resolutions and Memorials contain seven members, and that the delegates from each district name one member from its number. F. A. Hazeltine was made chairman.

On motion, it was ordered that the chair appoint a committee of seven on rules of order and order of business.

The Rules of Order and Order of Business Committee made its report. After a brief discussion, the report was adopted.

On motion, it was ordered that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet at one o'clock instead of one-fifteen, as shown by the program.

While waiting for the reports of various committees, we listened to remarks concerning the importance of our Pacific Christian Advocate.

On motion, we adjourned at twelve o'clock for lunch hour.

At one o'clock the meeting was called to order.

The first order of business was the election of delegates to the 1932 General Conference. Nomination speeches were limited to one minute each, and the nominees were allowed one minute to address the audience. The nominees were as follows: Logan H. Roberts, Yakima; Geo. R. Bigelow, Olympia; Mrs. Rufus Woods, Wenatchee; Geo. L. Haskins, Grandview; F. L. Pickett, Pullman; B. F. Hampson, Seattle; Hugh Gruwell, Seattle; I. N. Gallagher, Burlingame; Robt. Wentsch, Walla Walla; P. M. Snider, Puyallup; F. A. Hazeltine, South Bend; J. B. Hazen, Spokane; Harry L. Brown, Tacoma; W. Wayne Smith, Moscow; J. P. Simpson, Ephrata; Paul Sweet, Centralia; Charles L. Vaughn, Rochester. On motion, nominations were closed. After a few remarks by the candidates, balloting was taken up, resulting in the election of Mrs. Rufus Woods, John B. Hazen, Harry L. Brown, P. M. Snider, Hugh C. Gruwell, F. L. Pickett, F. A. Hazeltine. Reserve delegates: Logan H. Roberts, W. Wayne Smith, C. A. Robbins, G. R. Bigelow, J. P. Simpson, and Brother Carpenter were nominated for reserve delegates. L. H. Roberts, W. S. Smith, and C. A. Robbins, having received a majority of all votes cast, were duly declared elected as reserve delegates.

The following resolutions and memorials were introduced, with disposition as indicated:

Memorial No. 1, originating in Central Pennsylvania Conference, concerning number of reserve delegates, amending Paragraph 38, Section 2. Vote: Yes, 70; No, 19. Concurrence.

Memorial No. 2, originating from the same source as No. 1, amending Paragraph 39, Section 4, and substituting therefor the following: "A Lay Electoral Conference may elect as many reserve delegates as it may determine, not exceeding the number of its delegates." Vote: Yes, 60; no, 25.

Memorial No. 3, to General Conference, asking that retiring Bishops be restored to membership in the Annual Conference from which elected. Vote: Yes, 125; no, none.

Memorial No. 4, to General Conference, asking that there be a reduction of approximately $500,000 annually in the cost of administrative supervision of the church. Vote: Yes, 125; no, none.

Memorial No. 5, to General Conference, asking that new churches or major alterations be not allowed until approved by a committee of ministers and laymen. Vote: Yes, 125; no, none.

Memorial No. 7, to General Conference, asking that the secretary of a Quarterly Conference immediately notify the Secretary of the Annual Conference of the election of lay delegates. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Memorial No. 8, to General Conference, asking for the continuation of the publication of Christian Advocate, Pacific Edition, at Portland, Oregon. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Memorial No. 9, to General Conference, asking for workers and funds to be used for training of our young people who attend schools of higher learning not under the control of any Christian church. Vote: Yes, 125; no, none.

Resolution No. 1, favoring of United States' adherence to the World Court, limitation of armaments, and all sane plans looking to the abolition of war. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Resolution No. 2, renewing allegiance to Man of Galilee and pledging support of our several churches to solving of world problems. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Resolution No. 3, relating to Senator Dill's Senate Resolution No. 495, asking for an investigation of the motion-picture industry, and also relating to the proposed legislation to combat the evils of the industry. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Resolution No. 4, expressing confidence in B. N. Hicks and his leadership of the Anti-Saloon League of Washington, and pledging our cooperation to him and other organized means for enforcement of prohibition laws. Vote: For, 125; against, none.

Resolution No. 6, declaring unalterable opposition to the restoration of the legalized liquor traffic; condemning that section of the public press that is endeavoring to deceive the public as to the facts of prohibition and its value; commending the work of enforcement now being carried on by the reorganized Department of Justice under the urge of President Hoover; urging more cordial cooperation of State and local authorities and continuance of declared policy of energetically prosecuting important and notorious offenders, as well as small violators. Vote: Yes, 125; no, none.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to express our appreciation to the Christian Church for the use of the building.

By motion, the secretary was ordered to thank the various newspapers that used their columns for publishing our proceedings.

On motion, the meeting adjourned at five o'clock P. M.

The General Conference of 1928 ordered a survey of all Methodist institutions of higher learning. A Commission was appointed and nationally known experts were employed for the task. The following are some of their findings:

"This Survey Staff has found few institutions whose prospects are as favorable as those at the College of Puget Sound."

"The needs of the College can finally be reduced to one factor—the need for a larger supporting income."

"The financial policies which have been pursued in the past have been conservative and on the whole in accordance with sound principles."

IS IT INSURED!

Nobody knows when Fire or Lightning, Windstorm or Hail will destroy. Somewhere every day church or home property is burning.

A Burning Shame

THE NATIONAL MUTUAL CHURCH INSURANCE COMPANY OF CHICAGO
(The Methodist Mutual)

has been furnishing protection AT COST under its easy annual payment plan since 1899. No church can afford to carry its own risk—nor can any home owner! NO ASSESSMENTS. Legal reserve for the protection of its policyholders the same as stock companies. Insures Churches, Parsonages, Property of Ministers, Homes and Personal Effects of Church Members.

NO AGENTS DEAL DIRECT

Policies now in effect on nearly every church in Methodism in the United States. Gross Losses paid over THREE AND A QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS. ($3,250,000.00).

NOT ONE DOLLAR EVER DUE AND UNPAID

Order of the Day—On motion of Robt. Brumblay, 10 o'clock Saturday was set as the time to consider invitations for entertaining the Conference next year.

Transfer Requirements—Upon motion of J. M. Adams, the following resolution was adopted:

"WHEREAS, the Methodist ministry is a brotherhood and,

"WHEREAS, there have been transferred out of this Conference certain members who have not satisfied the disciplinary requirements pertaining to pro-rating of ministerial claims, and since we believe this practice is unethical, unmethodistic, unchristian and is rapidly breaking down the brotherhood and the morale of our ministry and our churches;

"THEREFORE' we urge our presiding Bishop before completing a transfer to make inquiry of our Conference Treasurer and the treasurer of the Conference Board of Stewards to determine the status of pro-rate.

"We further protest the transfer of any Conference member until all disciplinary requirements have been satisfied."

Prorating Ministerial Claims—Upon motion of Stanley G. Logan, the Bishop was requested to appoint a committee of three to communicate with all pastors and churches delinquent in pro-rating ministerial claims, the approach to be made in a kindly manner, but if necessary extreme measures to be taken. That in any settlement all ministerial claims are to be taken into consideration.

Andrew Warner moved that the Board of Stewards be asked to communicate to the treasurers of the churches the information concerning their legal responsibility to prorate the funds for ministerial support coming into their hands so that each fund receives its share quarterly, and it was so ordered.

Recess—On motion of T. W. Bundy the executive session was closed and a recess was taken, on motion of H. L. Allen.

TITUS LOWE,
President.

SEVENTH DAY

Monday, June 20, 1932.

Opening—The Conference came to order at 8:30 at the call of Bishop Lowe, who delivered the devotional address.

Journal Approved—The Journal of the last session was read and approved.

Greetings—A message of greeting from Henry R. Cross, at Hyder, Alaska, was read by the secretary.

Jason Lee Celebration—E. M. Hill presented the following resolution, and on his motion it was adopted:

"WHEREAS, the one hundredth anniversary of the coming of Jason Lee to the Northwest will be celebrated in 1934 at which time the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference will be invited to participate, necessitating the holding of the Conference west of the Cascades, and

"WHEREAS, if the Conference convenes in western Washington in 1933 it will mean a location of this Conference in this territory for three consecutive years, thus disregarding the tacit understanding at the time of the union of the Columbia River and Puget Sound Conferences that east and west Washington should alternate in entertainment, and

"WHEREAS, now that the laymen are members of the Annual Conference, they will expect to meet the same emergencies that ministers have always met in attendance at the annual session, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, that we earnestly request the commission on the choice of Conference Location for 1933 to give the most sympathetic consideration to the invitation of Coeur d'-Alene, Idaho."

Board of Stewards—The following nominations concerning the Conference Board of Stewards were made by C. L. Creesy, and on his motion they were confirmed:

In accordance with the action of the General Conference and the several Annual Conferences whereby Laymen are admitted to the joint Lay and Annual Conference, the Board of Stewards recommends that there be a reorganization of the Conference Board of Stewards to admit lay representation upon the Board, and that the membership of the Conference Board of Stewards shall consist of fifteen ministers and six laymen arranged in three classes of five ministers and two laymen in each class.

The Conference Board of Stewards nominate the following as the ministerial members of the Conference Board of Stewards:

Clas of 1933: Geo. Hopkins, P. H. Raymond, C. L. Creesy, B. E. Koontz and J. S. Bell.

Class of 1934: R. L. Sprague, O. M. Graham, Stanley Logan, Paul H. Green and F. N. Morton.

Class of 1935: W. H. H. Forsyth, G. A. Wells, G. A .Nelson, E. T. Randall and O. J. Beadles.

We ask that the Commission of the Joint Session of the lay and Annual Conference nominate the lay members of each class and recommend them that G. E. Davis and J. S. MacIntosh be the lay members in the class of 1933.

Institutional Benevolences—The following report was presented by E. J. Huston, and on his motion it was adopted:

Your Committee on Conference Benevolences, having carefully considered the askings of the various Conference institutions for the coming year, we recommend the following amounts be apportioned to the charges of the Pacific Northwest Conference:

Northwest Training School	$12,000
Wesley Foundation:
a. University of Washington	10,000
b. Washington State College	1,000
c. University of Idaho	1,000

We suggest that the apportionments to the several charges be made by a given percentage of the World Service askings in the amount sufficient to cover the above askings.

Seattle General Hospital—The following resolutions concerning the Seattle General Hospital were read by C. A. Wright, and on his motion they were adopted:

"We recommend that a sub-committee of the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes be designated to act in those cases that arise from time to time of which the Conference should have full knowledge. It is suggested that this committee be located near enough to be easily calle din for consultation.

"Dr. H. B. Thompson, who is the X-Ray technician of the hospital and on the pay roll is also a trustee of the hospital. Under the tax-exemption rules for eleemosynary institutions this is not permitted without making the hospital liable for taxes. We therefore recommend that he be asked to resign from the Board of Trustees of the Seattle General Hospital that the hospital may not become liable for taxes."

The following were nominated by the Conference as Trustees of the Seattle General Hospital:

Class of 1932: Three Year Term—Samuel Koch, Hugh Gruwell, Paul Ashby, F. A. LaViolette, John Dolby.

To Fill Vacancies: Class of 1932—C. A. Wright.

Committee Reports—The following reports of Committees were made and on motion of those presenting them they were adopted: Hospitals and Homes, by Ernest Barber; Evangelism, Ernest Barber; Social Service, Richard Decker; World Service, Norman McCay; Resolutions, J. H. Secor.

Conference Institutions—On motion of Ernest Barber, the following resolution was adopted:

> "In the light of the present financial stringency and the consequent handicaps under which our institutions are operating, it is herewith recommended that our pastors take special care in directing our people to our own institutions in order that the largest revenue possible may be obtained with which to carry on the work of our own institutions for which we are responsible."

Bishop W. O. Shepard—On motion of S. S. Sulliger, the secretary was instructed to properly record the death of Bishop Shepard and to send a message of sympathy to Mrs. Shepard.

Finance Commission—The secretary read the nominations on the Commission on Finance, and on motion they were confirmed. (See List)

Walla Walla District—A. J. Seibel, R. E. Smith, F. L. Pickett.

Adjournment—R. C. Hartley moved that after the closing exercises and the reading of the appointments by Bishop Lowe the Conference adjourn.

After singing and prayer the appointments were read and the Conference adjourned, Bishop Lowe pronouncing the benediction.

Official Certification—THIS CERTIFIES, That the foregoing is a correct report of the proceedings of the fourth session of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Tacoma Washington, June 14 to June 20, 1932, and that the same is the official record of the Conference.

REPORTS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Conference Board of Education is inspired with confidence in the election to leadership of the Board of Education of Dr. F. C. Eiselen who is interested in the total program of education.

This Conference has reason to be proud of the development of its program of education as carried on within the local church, the College of Puget Sound, the Northwest Training School and Wesley Foundations.

In recent years over 80 percent of our new members have come through the Sunday School and 20 percent of the money raised for World Service has been raised from the same source. During the past year, with gratifying results, the director has carried the seminar method to the major part of the Conference through monthly meetings with groups of ministers. The encouragement and guidance given to over one thousand young people in our institutes has resulted in dynamic experience of religious reality.

The director has traveled extensively throughout the Conference, conducting seminars for ministers, conferences for officers, training schools for teachers, and institutes for young people.

On the estimated budget of $6,000 we received from the Conference $3,900. By strict economy and heroic sacrifice of the director expenses have been kept below $5,000, which includes a thousand dollar deficit carried on director's salary.

We recommend the following program of advance:

1. A ten day seminar at Epworth Heights, August 8-18, under the direction of Dr. Charles F. Boss and a party of workers whom he will assemble. One hundred pastors ought to participate.

2. An enlarged program of missionary education and support.

A. The study and support of a special Foreign Missionary project, such as China, with the understanding that the Board of Foreign Missions shall assign to the Sunday Schools of our Conference, a project which will require for our support an amount about equal to that which the Sunday Schools have raised the past year for the Foreign Missionary program.

B. The study and support of a special Home Missionary project, such as work among the American Indian, with the understanding that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension shall assign to the Sunday Schools of our Conference a project which will require for support an amount about equal to that which the Sunday Schools have raised the past year for the Home Missionary Program.

C. The support of the Conference program of education assigned as a project by the General Board of Education.

The foregoing plan is in accord with legislation by the last General Conference and approved by the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Education.

3. A plan for the cooperation and leadership of the program of Religious Education of the enlarged Portland Area has been considered by our Bishop Titus Lowe, Dr. M. N. English, and representatives of the four conferences involved. Under this plan the two directors will be placed in charge of the area program utilizing the special ability of each man for the entire area.

The Conference Board of Education requests the election of the following commission to cooperate with Bishop Lowe and similar commissions from other conferences within the area for the perfecting of the plan of support and supervision of the program: R. S. Rees, J. Edgar Purdy, J. M. Adams, R. L. Sprague, H. O. Perry.

4. Whether our program is to continue within the Conference or under the enlarged area plan it will require the unanimous loyal support of both pastors and Sunday Schools. The Rally Day offering on the basis of ten cents per member must be supplemented by the allocation of that portion of the World Service giving of the Sunday Schools as outlined above.

5. We recognize the Washington Idaho Council of Christian Education as our accredited agency for interdenominational work in religious education and commend it to our Sunday Schools and interested laymen for such financial support as they may feel inclined to give; provided the apportionment for our own denominational work has been met.

6. We appreciate the splendid work of Miss Ethel V. Sprague who has had charge of Dr. Warner's office. Her extensive knowledge of the program and materials and her devotion to the work have contributed to the success of this work. The Conference greatly appreciates the tireless, sacrificial labors of Dr. Warner and request his re-appointment as Director of Religious Education.

College of Puget Sound—The College of Puget Sound reports having served 1215 different persons in the last twelve months. This includes the regular day session in which 688 persons were enrolled.

It reports full settlement with the General Education Board. That Board pledged $250,000 on the conditions that the College should secure $750,000 of additional endowment and be out of debt. The meeting of those conditions on December 15, 1931 was an outstanding event in the history of the College, and President Todd merits the hearty congratulations of the lay and clerical members of this Conference as well as the lovers of education in the Northwest.

The victory is more outstanding because of present economic conditions. The gift of $150,000 from the Leonard Howarth Estate made possible this settlement. Along with it, Mr. E. S. Collins paid his pledge for the endowment of the chair of English Bible, and others paid their subscriptions.

In order to secure the $150,000 the Tacoma City Council, the Chamber of Commerce, and the social and literary clubs of men and women joined in making a request to the executors of the estate that the bequest, which was to be given to the City of Tacoma or to some institution therein, should be given to the College of Puget Sound.

On February 18, 1932, this notable victory was celebrated together with the inauguration of Founders' and Patrons' Day. That celebration and the announcement of the program of the College to increase its holdings to $5,000,000 by 1936 brought wide publicity to the institution.

The College has received recognition for its scholastic standing more widely than ever before. Altogether, we consider that the College of Puget Sound has just closed a very successful year.

The Conference Board of Education recommends that the College be commended to all of our pastors for cordial representation in their charges in seeking out young people of character and scholastic preparation for admission.

We also recommend that the pulpits be opened whenever possible to representatives of the College.

The Conference Board of Education desires to express high appreciation of the fact that a second professor of Religious Education has been employed, whose salary is to be paid out of the income from a special gift for the Department of English Bible.

We recommend that this Conference congratulate President Todd and his co-workers upon their success during the year and bid them Godspeed, assuring them of the hearty support of the members of the Conference.

Northwest Training School—In November 1931 the Northwest Training School celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary. A history of the work was prepared, showing that the school has steadily advanced One hundred seventy-one young women have been graduated, representing the institution in nine different countries, as well as in the United States, as parish workers, chaplains in hospitals, secretaries in various institutions. The past year has been successful. One hundred fourteen churches have responded with a total of $4,805.85. Twenty-nine young women have been enrolled, nine of whom were graduated on May 27.

Wesley Foundations—Methodism must look to her college trained men and women, not only in full time service, but for local church leadership. The church must continue to follow her youth for those years of college and university training. Every local church must follow her sons and daughters with her Methodist dollars.

We commend the pastors and directors of our Wesley Foundation at Seattle, Pullman and Moscow, and must heartily endorse the comprehensive programs of Christian Education ministering to our youth in her social, recreational, and worship needs. We note that these leaders have inaugurated programs in which regular collegiate credit courses in Bible and Religious Education are offered and that the University of Idaho and Washington State College grant full scholastic recognition to the instructors and course.

We are pleased with the General Conference Legislation which places the Wesley Foundation under the General Board of Education as its sole responsibility.

Recommendations—1.—In view of the fact that our Conference Director of Religious Education contacts the church school workers of our entire conference, and that the college and university young people come to our campuses from the schools of these workers, therefore, we recommend that our Conference Director of Religious Education be enlisted in the task of continuing or enlisting the interest of the local church workers in these youth through their collegiate careers and in cooperating with our Wesley Foundations in a financial way.

We urge all of our churches and pastors to support the Wesley Foundation in its financial program; in the observance of go-to-College Sunday; in preparing the minds of our Students for college and church relationships; to present the financial needs of the Foundations; to take an offering for the same, which shall be forwarded to the directors; and further we urge that the names of those students who are to attend these institutions be sent to the directors that contact may be made with them as they come to the campus.

3. We appreciate the splendid cooperation of our District Superintendents in presenting the Wesley Foundation program through District and Quarterly Conferences and recommend that each Superintendent, in cooperation with the pastors and Directors of Wesley Foundation work out an asking to be presented to the Quarterly Conferences and churches early in the year for their acceptance as a Conference Benevolence and that Wesley Foundation be placed in the District Conference Programs, giving ample opportunity for such presentation.

4. We ask that the Conference Wesley Foundation Commission raised last year be continued that a unified program within the Conference may be assured.

CENTRAL WASHINGTON DEACONESS HOSPITAL

It is impossible to bring the wonderful report of former years, but must report one-third less patient days. A defaulting on payment on bonded indebtedness and no report of purchase of new equipment.

The year 1930 showed a net gain of $10,198.24. In 1931 a net loss of $3,853.38. This is accounted for largely by a charge off for free work of $18,870.29 as compared with 1930 with only $9,769.88. Patient days in 1930 were 17,960 while in 1931 there were 15,374.

In 1931 1702 patients were cared for. Of this number, one-fourth were free patients. So far, the poor and well-to-do have had help when needed.

The mortality rate for the year was exceedingly low, it being only 1.7 percent.

The hospital building has been newly either washed or painted by men and women for services given them. Here should be mentioned the Guild of the M. E. Church of Wenatchee who purchased for the lobby new upholstered furniture and linoleum, making the entrance very attractive. Also, the Ladies of the Churches from Kennewick to Yakima as well as the Wenatchee Valley have canned six thousand quarts of fruit and juices for the hospital as a gift, all this and many other things have greatly helped during this trying year.

As to standards, we have met them all. The College of Surgeons, the American Medical Association, the requirements for admission to the Washington State College and the League of Nursing.

Our Doctors Staff with 90 percent average attendance in its meetings working with our nursing staff in conducting the training school for nurses and our three deaconesses, Miss Newberry, Miss Reich and Miss Kiser have had what might be called a delightful year.

Our only trouble is financial, and if just an average price for fruit is had, our large amount of accounts receivable will easily care for the deficit of the past year.

J. O. HAWK, Superintendent.

SEATTLE GENERAL HOSPITAL

The Seattle General Hospital has had a strenuous year. Many of our patients are without funds and can only be cared for on deferred payments or be given free service.

The number cared for during the year was 2837 as compared to 3486 during the preceeding year. Our earnings for the year was $179,355.79. Our cash receipts $168,540.58, or 93.9% of our earnings. After deducting depreciation of $3,143.70 on buildings, $3,740.45 on furniture and equipment, and $8,967.75 as a reserve for probable loss on our accounts receivable, a total of $15,851.90, we show a gain of $3,655.57 for the year. This may be more apparent than real however, as the condition of the times make our frozen assets and the value of our property a questionable value. People generally would gladly pay their hospital bills but many have exhausted their resources.

The Seattle General Hospital has reduced its operating expense to what seems to be the minimum. May first we cut our payroll for the second time $1,000.00 per month. There is complete loyalty on the part of our employees in making the best of a trying situation.

The training school for nurses graduated a class of 23 nurses this year. They are a fine group and much credit must be given to Miss Anna Woods, Supervisor of Nurses and Miss Glee Martin, Principal of the school.

J. W. EFAW, Business Manager.

CONFERENCE WORLD SERVICE PROGRAM

We request our Bishop and his cabinet to work out a definite program for designated gifts and World Service promotion. That this program will so be constructed as to enlist the co-operation of our young people so that they shall vision our world task and responsibility, and at the same time vision our Home task and provide for our own imperative needs.

That we plan for the work of the quadrennium in Education promotion and finance.

We will loyally follow our leaders in such a constructive effort toward the advance of the Redeemers Kingdom on Earth.

ANDREW WARNER, Chairman.
NORMAN McKAY, Secretary.

AREA WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

"Lest we forget, lest we forget," we should frequently remind ourselves that "World Service" is the biggest, the most challenging, the most wonderful, the most difficult—but the most glorious task of the Evangelical Church.

This year there has been a decrease of 30% in world service giving in our Conference. It is a sad condition, that will compel the withdrawal of workers from the Mission fields. We believe the pastors and Local World service councils need to co-operate diligently to raise money for World service, by urging every member to pay something weekly and that the Sunday Schools be urged to give monthly, if they are not already doing so. Also that our World Service treasurers be urged to send the money monthly to the World Service office.

J. T. McQUEEN, Chairman
F. F. BOOTHBY, Secretary

EVANGELISM

The decrease in membership in the churches calls for earnest prayer and deeper consecration on the part of all Christians. The need for a personal religious experience should be continually stressed.

There is no depression in spiritual values and in these times the Church has a glorious opportunity to minister to the spiritual needs of humanity.

We pledge ourselves to renewed efforts to enroll men, women and children under the banner of Christ and bring them under the fostering care of the Church.

B. H. HART, Chairman
ERNEST BARBER, Secretary

TEMPERANCE — RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Our General Conference, meeting at Atlantic City, unanimously, by Episcopal Address, by vote of the legislative body, and by recommendation of the Committee on Temperance Probition and Public Morals, did declare the position of Methodism to be solidly behind the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act and all legislators and executives, of every political party who were upholding the Constitution and their Oaths of Office, and

WHEREAS, We Methodists of the Portland Area, meeting in the State of Washington, are mindful of the fact that our citizens have, time after time voted our conviction, that the sale of alcoholic beverages is wrong, and that we now have laws, which, if the Law Enforcement Officials of our States would enforce as faithfully as our National Enforcement Officials are endeavoring to do, would be of great economic and moral benefit to our Commenwealths, and

WHEREAS, The propaganda of the wets as voiced by certain portions of the Metropolitan Press, and the misrepresentation as to the stand of our Churches and social service organizations, need protestation at our hands, and

WHEREAS, We are encouraged that the ground so far gained by the drys has recently, by one of the great parties, been recognized by it, in National Convention assembled which pledged to uphold the principal of Temperance, Sobriety, and no saloon, and we hope the other party will likewise also declare, and be even stronger, by taking a stand against the convention method of dealing with the liquor problem, and

WHEREAS, We deplore that the chief executive of the State of Washington has so signally failed to uphold the Prohibition Laws of his State and keep his oath of office to support the Constitution, and has been a nullificationist, and

WHEREAS, Now is a time for political action to prove our Christian Citizenship, Americanism, Patriotism, and our recognition of the importance of law enforcement, Now, Therefore, Be It

RESOLVED, That we, the Members of the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in convention duly assembled, do hereby pledge anew our Allegiance to the Constitution of the United States of America, and especially to the Eighteenth Amendment; and will use our influence in the active support of all laws, local, state or national, which forbids the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors and all trafficing therein, and particularly our State laws.

RESOLVED, That we will be active in opposition to Initiative No. 61, which proposes a repeal of the bone dry law of the State of Washington. We will work unremittingly for the defeat of any legislator or executive that will not openly declare his opposition to the sale of intoxicating liquor, and the support and strengthening of our prohibition laws, and

RESOLVED, That we realize that the Anti-Saloon League is, and has been, the United Church in Action against the beverage liquor traffic, and we endorse the Anti-Saloon League of the State of Washington, its State Superintendent B. N. Hicks, the W. C. T. U., the Allied Campaigners, and all agencies that are against the legalized liquor traffic, and be it further

RESOLVED, That we believe in the ultimate triumph of right over wrong, and that we again register our faith in the common sense of our voters, and that Methodism will wage incessant warfare upon any effort to legalize the traffic in alcoholic beverages.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY—1932

The recent General Conference authorized an appropriate commemoration of the coming of Jason Lee and his associates to this Pacific Northwest country, making the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension responsible for the program of preparation, cooperating with the Annual Conferences of the Portland Area. Your Historical Society recommends the prompt and appropriate cooperation in this program of commemoration.

We recommend a great event at Vancouver on September 28, 1934, in honor of Jason Lee's coming into this country. We would have this as a special session of the Annual Conference, from which we might pass to the famous scenes in the lower Willamette Valley, as planned by the Joint Commission of the two Conferences, the Pacific Northwest and the Oregon. Other dates and scenes should be featured as later developed, and we would have a full program of activities presented at the 1933 sessions of these conferences and also the Idaho Conference.

We recommend the continuance of the Commission as printed in the Conference Journal of 1931.

This action should be presented to the other Conferences looking toward the most friendly cooperation possible in this opportunity of appreciation and honor of the founders of our great church in the Pacific Northwest.

TACOMA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The Goodwill Industries was created for just such conditions as exist now. The Goodwill stands for the idealism of the Great Master who sanctified labor with his own labor. Thousands of families are fighting against the degrading influence of the dole, while thousands of others have succumbed and bluntly say, "We can live without working."

Amidst the falling morale and the destruction caused by the financial break-up, contending against destructive forces from every side, the Goodwill stands with its idealism of a fair show for everyone, "Not charity but a chance." As the arm of the church it is trying to interpret and put into practice the Sermon on the Mount.

More than 3,000 people have been helped in different ways during the past year. Over $220,000.00 have been paid out in self-respecting wages since beginning the work in Tacoma.

We have tried to make the Goodwill a center of prayer and spiritual life. God has answered our prayers. Many have found Christ as their Savior, and people have come to us for spiritual consolation who knew no where else to go.

The financial depression has put an almost unbearable burden upon us, but the Great Burden-bearer is at our side. We have the finest staff of loyal workers we have ever had, but we feel that, as we are trying to put into practice the teachings of Jesus to feed the hungry and clothe the naked, and are doing this in the name of the Church of Jesus Christ, we need the loyal support and prayers of all the brethren, Pray for us.

H. W. MICHENER, Superintendent.

CENTRALIA COMMITTEE

The Centralia Investigation Committee is happy to report progress. Within the past year the Committee, or some of its representatives, have appeared before the State Parole Board at each Quarterly meeting. At the September meeting Eugene Barnett and O. C. Bland were released on parole. The committee feel that steady progress is being made in behalf of the Centralia prisoners, but are convinced that continued and systematic presentation of their case before the Governor and the Parole Board will be necessary to secure their ultimate release.

RESOLUTIONS

The Pacific Northwest Conference convened in the City of Tacoma, humbly acknowledges the continued care and boundless blessing of our Heavenly Father, that by His Grace we have been kept and guided thru difficult days and sustained and cheered by the hope of His sacred promises. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That unto Him we return our sincere gratitude, ask His forgiveness for the weakness and failures of past days and pledge anew our allegiance to Him and His sacred cause, and promise unto Him and the Christ of our salvation the earnest labor, day by day of our lives.

We are happy in confessing the pleasant and profitable days that the generous hospitality of Tacoma Methodism and the Pastor and People of this church have bestowed upon us. Many words could not make it more sincere and on the old theory that "one good turn deserves another," we hope that in some future day you will permit us to come again.

We are pleased to thank the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. for the use of adding machines and the H. D. Baker Company for the use of typewriters.

Throughout our session we have been inspired and instructed by the lectures and discussion group leading of Dr. C. C. McCown, Dean of the Pacific School of Religion of Berkeley, California. We have enjoyed his genial presence and are grateful for his splendid service.

We hold ourselves debtors to Dr. U. G. Dubach, Dean of Men of the Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon, for his practical, inspiring and uplifting address to our young people.

We have enjoyed, as always, the illuminating presence of Edward Laird Mills. We regret his removal from our area. But he is still "our editor" and to him and our Advocate we promise our real support—which is by interpretation, that we will go after subscribers.

We are glad to have with us again the presence of Dr. Jay C. Stowell of our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and thank him for his helpful address.

We keenly appreciated the address delivered by Dr. Charles MacCaughey, representing the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. Not only are we thankful for the able address, but for his constant battling in the cause of Prohibition and Public Morals.

To Professor Kloepper and the choir for the excellent music rendered during the session.

To the good women of First Church for serving such delectable viands during the noon hour.

And finally, we are, indeed, most grateful for the return of, to our area and to the presiding chair of this Conference, our own Bishop, Titus Lowe. The heart of the Conference speaks and bids you welcome. And Brother Bishop, we promise, man for man, to help, to support and loyally follow you in that energetic, devoted leadership which has so signally marked your first quadrennium with us.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF STEWARDS

Treasurer's Report

As Treasurer of the Conference Board of Stewards, I submit herewith the financial record showing receipts, disbursements and bank balances properly verified by the Conference Auditing Committee.

The work of the year has required the writing of 1840 checks, over 300 vouchers and over 600 letters. The total bank transactions have been $135,647.43. The interest accrued is $1,223.00. The total cost of handling including postage, printing, secretarial assistance and other incidentals has been $170.11.

The savings account is with the Board of Pensions and Relief in Chicago from which monthly withdrawals as needed have been made. This account has earned 4.7% interest. The local accounts are with the Citizens' Bank of Bremerton. This institution deserves our hearty thanks for the work they have done. Our balance with them is always relatively small. Attached herewith is the Auditor's statement.

VII

REV. RICHARD OATES

The Reverend Richard Oates was born in Cornwall, England, July 11, 1857, and passed to his reward March 21st, 1932. Brother Oates was educated in England and began his ministry there. He later went to Australia where he spent ten years in preaching the gospel. He came to America in 1897 and spent ten years in Colorado Conference, then came to the Pacific Northwest where he spent the balance of his ministry in Washington.

Brother Oates was of the intellectual, spiritual type. He was a great reader and a clear thinker. His spiritual nature kept him ever in close fellowship with the Divine. Few men could pray like Brother Oates, and listeners to his prayers felt the lift of his soul in theirs.

Brother Oates had a radiant personality. His smile was contagious, his youthfulness of spirit attracted the young to him. He served faithfully some of our best churches and left them better than he found them.

He served in this Conference the following churches: Bothell; Bremerton; Snohomish; Kent; Grace, Seattle; Woodland Park; Asbury, Tacoma; Sumner; Burlington and in his retirement, Fall City.

We have lost a real Christian from our midst.

MRS. JENNIE COOK KIRKMAN

Mrs. Jennie Cook Kirkman was born in Stark county, Ohio, June 3, 1848, and passed away in Spokane, Washington, June 27, 1931.

She was married to the Rev. J. C. Kirkman April 3, 1872, and they lived to celebrate their Golden wedding in 1922. Her husband went to his coronation July 30, 1930.

Mrs. Kirkman moved with her husband from Kansas to Walla Walla in 1875 and experienced all the hardships incident to pioneer life in the formative days of the Church in the Inland Empire.

She was a loyal worker for Christ bearing all the burdens with cheerfulness and courage. She was also active in the Eastern Star and the Womans Relief Corps.

Only eternity will reveal the good this rare soul accomplished during her long and useful life.

She is survived by one son, Wilbur D. Kirkman in charge of the Cowles reference library.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Ray S. Dum.

MRS. MARY ANN WELCH

Mrs. Mary Ann Welch was born at Pleasant Hill (now Wingate) Indiana, March 2, 1846, and died in Portland, Oregon, July 25, 1931, after a short illness.

In 1871 she married the Dev. Wm. M. Welch a member of the Des Moines Conference and later moved to Dakota Territory. In 1889 they moved to Washington, where they labored in different parts of the Sound country.

In 1914 her husband passed away in Indiana and in 1919 Mrs. Welch moved to Portland, Oregon, to be near her oldest son.

Wherever she lived she left a host of sincere and faithful friends. Her chief aim was to please God that some day she might be with her Savior whose companinoship in life was so real to her.

Of her immediate family she is survived by Mrs. C. A. Baker, Fontanelle, Iowa; Lieut.-Col. Alfred B. Welch, Mandan, North Dakota; Eldred N. Welch, Portland, Oregon.

Funeral services were held at Woodlawn Church and interment was in the family plot, Wingate, Indiana.

MRS. W. H. BAKER

Msr. W. H. Baker was born at Sacket Harbor, N. Y., Novembe r11, 1862, and died at Malone, N. Y., July 31. 1931.

She was married in Sacket Harbor to the Rev. W. H. Baker and with him faithfully cooperated in all the labors of the churches which they so loyally served first in New York and afterwards in the Puget Sound Conference.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. M. E. Van Ornum of Chateaugay, N. Y., assisted by Rev. John Webster of Malone, N. Y.

Bro. Baker passed away in Seattle, October 6, 1928 and the mortal remains of his devoted companion will find a resting place by his side in the beautiful cemetery near the scenes of their last earthly labors.

Besides her children Sister Baker leaves a large circle of loyal friends who sincerely mourn her passing.

MRS. KITTIE BELLE EVERS

Mrs. Kittie Belle Evers was born in St. Louis, Mo., October 15, 1861, and died in Seattle, Washington, October 15, 1931 .

She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in 1888 she was married to the Rev. Volney C. Evers who predeceased her, January 9, 1919. Before coming to the State of Washington they served pastorates for seventeen years and until the retirement of Bro. Evers were engaged in spreading the kingdom of Christ in the Columbia River and the Puget Sound Conferences.

Sister Evers was interested in all that pertained to Church work and was a loyal assistant to her husband in all his arduous toil.

Funeral services were conducted from the University Temple by the Rev. R. H. Shuett, assisted by Rev. Dwight G. Bennett. Interment was at the Lakeview Cemetery, Seattle.

MRS. D. E. GEORGE

Joanna Ellen Beaver was born August 23, 1858, in Page County, Iowa, and died February 1, 1932, at Milton, Oregon, being 73 years, 5 months and 9 days old. She crossed the plains with her parents at the age of 7 years and located in Sonoma County, California. She lived there until December 4, 1874, when she was united in marriage to Rev. David E. George. To this union seven children were born, two dying in infancy. Two sons, Edgar of Arizona and Roy of Montana, and three daughters, Mrs. Rozella Manela of Albany, Ore.; Mrs. Myrtle Walter and Mrs. Gertrude McQueen of Milton, Ore., and five grandchildren and two great grandchildren survive. Sister George had been a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since childhood. Rev. David E. George was a member of the Columbia River Conference and died January 14, 1924.

MRS. GEORGE L. CUDDY

Sarah Nannie James was born February 2, 1863 at Churchville, Maryland, and died at Syracuse, N. Y., March 8, 1932.

She was married to the Rev. George L. Cuddy, July 29, 1885, and served with her husband in the pastorate until his death, September 21, 1929.

Mrs. Cuddy received her education at Western Maryland College and graduated with very high honors. The young couple moved to Washington in the early nineties and served many charges within the bounds of the Puget Sound Conference.

Sister Cuddy was a most loving and devoted mother with high ideals and great understanding. Through all the vicissitudes of the pastorate in a pioneer country she bore the burdens and responsibilities with true Christian fortitude and was a friend to all who came within the sphere of her influence.

"Her children arise and call her blessed."

ANNA CHARLOTTE PETERSON

Anna Charlotte Peterson was born in Sweden, May 19, 1864. With her parents she moved to Minnesota, and in Stillwater was converted in the Swedish Church there. In the year 1906 she was graduated from the Chicago Training School from which her sister, Christine, had received the same honor. That same year she was consecrated a deaconess in the Methodist Episcopal Church, which relationship she maintained as an active worker until 1926 and from then till her homegoing as a retired worker.

From 1906 until 1910 she served as matron of the Chicago Training School; from 1910 to 1916 as dietician of the Great Falls Deaconess Hospital; from 1916 to 1919 as matron of the Susannah Wesley Home in Chicago; from 1919 to 1926 as matron in the Northwest Training School of Seattle.

Her service was of the highest type, she excelled in workmanship.

Her years as a retired deaconess were also active—her home was opened wide in hospitality to her friends.

She had a very spiritual nature and revelled in Easter and all special services where Christ was uplifted. She was exceedingly loyal to her church in attendance and in financial support. As illness held its heavy arm over her she sweetened from month to month, ripening for Heaven. One of her closing words to the writer was of "going to sleep on earth and wakening in Heaven." Just that she did and on Sunday, February 21, 1932, after months of discomfort and suffering, awakened in that land of no night, no sorrow, no pain. Her Home-going was the anniversary of her mother's death, who passed away on Sunday, February 21, 1921.

As we think of our beloved and departed sister, it is to remember her hearty laugh, her ready tear, her hospitality, her loyalty to her work, to the deaconess movement, to all things Christian and to Christ himself. Memories of her will linger with us always. "Blessed in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

To Miss Christine, her deaconess sister, and her three brothers, we extend our sincere sympathy. May "the God of all comfort" keep your hearts comforted until the summons comes for you to join father, mother and sister.

BISHOP WILLIAM O. SHEPARD

William O. Shepard was Bishop of the Portland Area for eight years from 1920 to 1928.

The Pacific Northwest Conference hereby records its gratitude to God for having enjoyed the inspiration of his leadership during this time.

His Christian spirit, his unfailing courtesy and his brotherly sympathy endeared him to the hearts of multitudes in the Pacific Northwest.

His passing away while Bishop of Paris Area since our last Conference brought sorrow to his many friends.

His brethren in the ministry convey to Mrs. Shepard their deepest sympathy in the great loss which we all share with her and commend her to the God of all comfort in her bereavement.

RULES GOVERNING CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS

1. Admission on Trial.

(a) No person shall be admitted on trial who is past thirty years of age, without a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

(b) Examinations should be taken before the date of the Annual Conference session. Arrangements for such may be made by correspondence with the chairman of the Board. Examination must be completed the day before the opening of the Annual Conference. No examinations will be given after the opening of the Conference session.

2. General Rules Governing Books to be Studied and Examinations Thereon.

(a) Attendance at Summer School is required of all undergraduates (Discipline, Par. 187, Sec. 5). Written work on the books to be studied shall be in the hands of the Area Registrar not later than the first day of the Summer School of Ministerial Training. Examinations will be given at the close of the school. N. B.: These books are not assigned to instructors of the Board of Ministerial Training.

(b) The time of submitting written work on collateral reading shall be determined by correspondence with the designated instructor. All written work on collateral reading must be in the hands of the instructors at least two weeks before the date of the Annual Conference.

(c) No student shall be advanced who has more than two incomplete subjects.

(d) Each examiner shall be required to submit grades to the Registrar not later than fifteen days after receiving papers.

(e) Each undergraduate shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents to cover postage and other expense.

(Undergraduates in the Course of Study can secure the names of the Examiners assigned to the various courses by correspondence with the Chairman of the Board.)
